Rally of Democratic Leaders | Victory for Panama Route | Western University's Night

NEWS SUMMARY

WASHINGTON.

Henry Rechlin, disbursing officer of the department of justice, was arrested and confessed to a shortage of $7,600.—Page 5.

The senate passed the isthmian canal bill, with the Spooner amendment, which favors the Panama route if the president finds he can secure a valid title.—Page 1.

Quay's postponement of his fight with senate committee on territories delays his projected visit to Pittsburgh.—Page 1.

DOMESTIC.

At the dedication of the new Tilden club in New York speeches for Democratic unity were made by Grover Cleveland and David B. Hill. W. J. Bryan failed to reply to an invitation.—Page 1.

Hearing on the contest of the will of H. M. Bennett, theatrical manager, began at Freehold, N. J. The witnesses to the will testified and the hearing was adjourned to Long Branch, July 2. The Gazette publishes the will in full.—Page 3.

New Jersey troops were ordered to Paterson; mob leaders are fugitives and rioters were dispersed by police and fire department.—Page 2.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Four are killed and four injured, two fatally, in a mysterious powder explosion near Johnstown.—Page 1.

LOCAL.

County commissioners have completed their financial statement for the state authorities, and are proud of the showing made. Despite costly improvements, Allegheny county millage is the lowest in the state. An increase of about $12,000,000 in valuations for taxation, and an increase in the amount of money at interest of about $19,000,000 over last year, is shown.—Page 5.

More interesting testimony was taken by the "Yellow Book" investigating committee. Court proceedings are warranted against Recorder J. O. Brown, Director A. H. Leslie and Supt. John McAleese, because of their violations of charter provisions.—Page 10.

Several hundred more people were vaccinated by the bureau of health physicians yesterday.—Page 4.

The centennial celebration of the Plum Creek Presbyterian church drew large crowds and was full of interest. Judge S. A. McClung and Maj. F. K. Patterson among the speakers.—Page 11.

Citizens party will this morning urge upon Mrs. John H. Trimble to secure her husband's acceptance to the nomination for assemblyman in the Second district, Allegheny. Other vacancies on the legislative fusion ticket have been filled.—Page 1.

Principal feature of the graduation of this year's class from the Western University of Pennsylvania at Carnegie Music hall last evening was an eloquent address made by the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, ex-postmaster general. Honorary degrees conferred on many prominent men.—Page 1.

Martha McConkey, 80 years old, committed suicide by hanging herself because she was unable to reform men and women of the drinking habit. Patrick Lynch committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid while he was crazed by drink last night at his home in East End.—Page 2.

LEGAL.

Charges of assault and battery against Mrs. Catherine Soffel are not pressed by the district attorney.—Page 14.

Ex-Alderman David Doughty, who shot a woman while firing at her brother, pleads self-defense.—Page 14.

William G. Foster's will filed; leaves large estate to his family.—Page 14.

IN BLAZING AUTOMOBILE

Demon Machine Catches Fire and Runs Away With Two Railroad Officials Aboard.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 19.—(Special.)—George B. Allen, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern railway, and John M. Beall, assistant general passenger agent of the Mobile & Ohio railroad, had an exciting experience in a runaway burning automobile this afternoon.

When their machine caught fire they vainly strove to stop it, but in their excitement they put on more power. Mr. Allen sprang from the vehicle to the asphalt pavement. He alighted on his right ankle, fracturing it severely. Mr. Beall threw the lever a jerk in the other direction and also jumped, alighting safely, but with a damaged pair of trousers, which were burned. Mr. Allen is under medical treatment at home.

HON. GROVER CLEVELAND,

CLEVELAND AND HILL MEET TO AID DEMOCRATIC UNITY

Bryan Shows His Disapproval of the Eastern Hosts by Ignoring Tilden Club's Invitation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 19.—Democratic unity was the keynote tonight of a great gathering of representative Democrats who had come to attend the opening of the handsome new quarters of the Tilden club. Addresses were made by prominent Democrats and afterward a collation was served in the banquet hall to the distinguished guests of the evening and a buffet supper was served in the basement for the rank and file.

To Democrats the event was one of the most memorable for many a day, as Grover Cleveland and David B. Hill met in harmony, seeking to draw the factions of their party together. It was the first public political appearance of the ex-president in five years. He spoke first. Ex-Senator Hill spoke after him and than Gov. A. J. Montague of Virginia and Col. J. A. Gaston of Boston delivered addresses.

William J. Bryan had been invited to attend, though not to speak, but no reply was received from him.

Mr. Cleveland arrived at the club house accompanied by H. D. Hotchkiss, Dr. Joseph E. Bryant and John C. Calhoun. He had scarcely got into the building when ex-Senator David B. Hill, accompanied by L. Laflin Kellogg, came in. Mr. Hill's eye caught Mr. Cleveland as soon as he had entered the spacious club foyer, and a moment later they were cordially shaking hands.

There was tremendous applause as Mr. Cleveland ascended the small platform. This applause wound up with three cheers and a "tiger." At the point in his speech where Mr. Cleveland announced his absolute retirement from politics, the crowd yelled, "No, no, no."

After the applause which greeted Mr. Cleveland had subsided, he began:

Retired or Banished.

I have been urged to participate in this occasion by those who have assured me that this handsome structure is to be dedicated tonight to the rehabilitation and consolidation of the Democratic party under the inspiration of a name which during the days of Democratic strength and achievement was honored in every Democratic household. Such an assurance made to one who followed with hearty devotion the leadership of Samuel J. Tilden when living and who has since found in his career and fame the highest incentive to Democratic steadfastness, could hardly fail to overcome the temptations of my contented retirement from political activity.

Perhaps there are those who could define my position as one of banishment instead of retirement. Against this I shall not enter a protest. It is sufficient for me in either case that I have followed in matters of difference within our party the teachings and counsel of the great Democrat in whose name party peace and harmony are tonight invoked. No confession of party sin should, therefore, be expected of me. I have none to make, nor do I crave political absolution. I am here to take counsel with others professing the same party faith concerning the Democratic situation. I suppose we all are convinced that this situation might be improved, and some of us may think it is perilously undermined.

The Democratic party is very far from political insolvency; but no one here should be offended by the suggestion that its capital and prospects have suffered serious injury since Mr. Tilden was elected president. Then and afterward northern Democratic states were not rare curiosities, northern Democratic senators, now practically extinct, were quite numerous and northern Democratic governors, now almost never seen, were frequently encountered.

Among the Rank and File.

If this state of impairment exists an instant duty presses upon the managers of the Democratic establishment; and one which they cannot evade with honor. Those of us less prominent in the party—the rank and file—are longing to be led through old Democratic ways to old Democratic victories. We were never more ready to do enthusiastic battle than now if we can only be marshalled outside the shadow of predestined defeat. Is it too much to ask our leaders to avoid paths that are known to lead to disaster? Is it too much to ask that proven errors be abandoned, and that we be delivered from a body of death and relieved from the burden of issues which have been killed by the decrees of the American people?

In dealing with new issues we of the Democratic faith are extremely fortunate in the simplicity of Democratic standards and the ease with which new questions can be measured by those standards. A party based upon care for the interests of all the people as their aggregate condition demands, with no unjust favoritism for any particular class; a party devoted to the plan of popular government as our fathers ordained it and for the purposes which they sought to establish; a party whose conservatism opposes dangerous and un-American experiments and yet puts no barrier in the way of genuine and safe progress, ought to be able to deal with new questions in a manner quite consistent with Democratic doctrine and instincts.

It is not in the search of new and gaudy issues, nor in the interpretation of strange visions that a strong and healthy Democracy displays its splendid power. Democracy has already in store the doctrines for which it fights its successful battles; and it will have them in store as long as the people are kept from their own, and just as long as their rights and interests are sacrificed by favoritism in government care, by inequality in government burdens, by the encouragement of huge industrial aggregations that throttle individual enterprise, by the reckless waste of public money and by the greatest of all injuries, as it underlies nearly all others, a system of tariff taxation whose robbing exactions are far beyond the needs of economical and legitimate government expenditure—which purchases support by appeals to scrifdiness and greed and which continually corrupts the public conscience.

True Democracy Begets Harmony.

The Democratic harmony of which we hear so much cannot be effectively constructed by mathematical rule nor by a formal agreement on the part of those who have been divided that there shall be harmony. It grows up naturally when true Democratic principles are plainly announced, when Democrati purposes are honestly declared and when, as a result of these, confidence and enthusiasm stir the Democratic blood.

I believe the times point to another Democratic opportunity as near at hand, but I believe we shall reap the fruits of it only by following the line of conduct I have indicated. In any event I have a comforting and abiding faith in the indestructability of the party which has so many times shown its right to live and its power for good, and I am sure the reserve of patriotic Democratic wisdom will at some time declare itself in the rescue of our country and our party.

My days of political activity are past; and I shall not hereafter assume to participate in party councils. I am absolutely content with retirement, but I still have one burning, anxious political aspiration. I want to see before I die the restoration to perfect health and supremacy of that Democracy whose mission it is to bless the people—a Democracy true to itself, untempted by clamor, unmoved by the gusts of popular passion and uncorrupted by offers of strange alliance—the Democray of patriotism, the Democracy of safety, the Democracy of Tilden and the Democrsy that deserves and wins success.

Hill Sounds Keynote.

Mr. Hill, who followed Mr. Cleveland, really sounded the Democratic keynote in his address, in the course of which he gave his ideas of what should be the party's platform, saying in regard to Democratic unity:

There is substantial accord among the Democrats of the country upon all the timely issues which are now engrossing public attention.

We are all united in favor of the preservation of constitutional liberty wherever our flag floats. We are opposed as the permanent policy of this government to the maintenance of dependent colonies to be governed outside of the pale of the constitution.

We are all agreed that the civil should always be superior to the military power.

We all concur in the principle that public taxation should be imposed for public purposes only.

We all favor freedom of commerce and therefore, favor genuine reciprocity with foreign nations, but are all opposed to sham republican reciprocity which is only another name for Republican hypocrisy.

There is no division of sentiment in our opposition to dangerous corporate combinations of capital which create monopolies, stifle competition, and unreasonably enhance prices of the necessaries of life.

We all stand for free trade in all articles controlled by the trusts.

We all desire justice for Cuba and justice to the consumers of the United States also.

What He Thinks of Money.

We all stand where Jackson, Benton and Tilden stood, in favor of hard money as opposed to an irredeemable paper currency.

We all recognize the dignity of labor and its right to demand just and adequate compensation.

We are all opposed to an immense standing army in times of peace.

We are all in favor of the constitutional reform involved in the election of United States senators by the people of the several states rather than by the state legislatures.

We all adhere to the doctrines adhered by Jefferson as follows: Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none.

With this substantial unity which exists upon these and other fundamental principles of Democratic faith to which I need not refer we may safely appeal to the people, and in view of that satisfactory situation it would be folly to longer dwell upon abstract or unreasonable questions.

Let us not seek to cross any uncertain bridges until we reach them.

THE PANAMA ROUTE WINS IN SENATE

Prospects Are That the House Will Accept the Amendment.

NEW CONDITIONS SINCE ITS VOTE

Bill as Passed Favors Panama Route If President Can Get a Clear Title.

MAJORITY OF EIGHT AGAINST NICARAGUA

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.

The large majority in the senate today for the Panama canal route is believed to presage a similar action on the part of the house when the amended bill goes back there.

While the house voted by a large majority in favor of the Nicaragua route, it was before the offer of the Panama company to acept a reasonable sum for its plant, and before the action of the Nicaraguan canal commission in declaring in favor of the Panama route; and yet, at that time 110 votes were cast for an amendment somewhat similar to the Spooner amendment, which was adopted by the senate today.

The vote on the Spooner amendment was 42 to 34, as follows:

Yeas—Aldrich, Allison, Bard, Beveridge, Burrows, Burton, Clark of Wyoming, Cullom, Deboe, Dietrich, Dryden, Fairbanks, Foraker, Foster of Washington, Frye, Gallinger, Gamble, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Hoar, Jones of Arkansas, Jones of Nevada, Keane, Kittredge, Lodge, McComas, McEnnery, McMillan, Mason, Millard, Platt of Connecticut, Pritchard, Proctor, Quarles, Scott, Spooner, Teller, Warren, Wellington, Wetmore.

Nays—Bacon, Bailey, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Carmack, Clapp, Clark of Montana, Clay, Cockrell, Culberson, Daniel, Dubois, Foster of Louisiana, Harris, Hawley, Heitfeld, McLaurin of Mississippi, Mallory, Martin, Mitchell, Morgan, Nelson, Patterson, Penrose, Perkins, Petius, Platt of New York, Quay, Simmons, Stewart, Taliaferro, Turner, Vest.

After two amendments to the measure had been adopted, one providing for a commission to supervise the construction of the canal, and the other providing for the issuance of $130,000,000 of 2 per cent gold bonds to raise money with which to construct the waterway, it was passed by a vote of 67 to 6.

The Spooner amendment provides that the president shall purchase the uncompleted Panama canal, together with all of the property, maps, records, etc., of the new Panama Canal Company for $40,000,000, provided that a satisfactory title can be secured. If the president is not thoroughly satisfied with the title to the Panama canal within a reasonable time, he is authorized to conclude a treaty with Costa Rica and Nicaragua, secure the necessary territory upon which to build the Nicaraguan canal. The sum of $10,000,000 is appropriated towards the project by either route.

King, Pittsburgh; Frank D. Leipold, Clearfield; William O. Linhart, Elizabeth; Louis G. Mafer, Allegheny; William A. Mannon, Washington; Victor Hugo McAlpin, Butler; Andrew M. McCullough, Pittsburgh; Archibald D. Meade, Corry; James H. Miller, Sugar Grove; John K. Parson, Charleroi; Jesse A. Pennington, Carmichaels; James B. Philipps, McKees Rocks; John R. Proven, Bellevue; Frederick Robinson and Robert C. Roy, Pittsburgh; Anuta M. Scolers, Fredonia; James E. Taft, Knoxville; Sue L. Paggart, Pittsburgh; Emory C. Thompson, Warren; John W. S. Walker, Pittsburgh; Thomas W. Young, Prosperity.

BRAZIL THREATENING.

Promises Trouble If Bolivia Does Not Abrogate Lease to Anglo-American Syndicate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—It became officially known today that the Brazilian government had conveyed to the government of Bolivia a notification that if the contract for the lease of the territory in the Acre region to an Anglo-American syndicate is not rescinded, diplomatic relations will be suspended immediately, and every obstacle will be placed in the way of developing that territory through the affluents of the Amazon running into Brazil.

According to information conveyed at the same time, a filibustering movement is on foot in the state of Amazonas, Brazil, with a view to the invasion of Acre, the territory said to have been turned over to Bolivia to the syndicate, and the organization of a revolution in that locality.

A STUBBORN INFANT.

CITIZENS PARTY AT THE MERCY OF ONE WOMAN

Committee Will Request the Aid of Mrs. John H. Trimble.

HER HUSBAND IS NEEDED ON TICKET

There will be a conference at the home of John H. Trimble in the Sixth ward, Allegheny, this morning, which will no doubt result in the nomination of Mr. Trimble as a Citizens party candidate for assemblyman in the Second district. Mrs. Trimble will have the deciding vote. If he is named the ticket will then be complete.

The Citizens committee filled the other legislative vacancies yesterday afternoon by making these Republican nominations:

First district—J. J. Gilchrist, Fourth ward, Allegheny.

Third district—Samuel L. Mawhinney, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh.

Fifth district—Ralph M. Strawbridge, Twenty-first ward, Pittsburgh.

The nomination in the Second district has been offered to Mr. Trimble, but he has refused to accept it. Yesterday the committee insisted, and he said he would leave the matter to Mrs. Trimble. The Citizens decided that they needed Trimble, and realized after his statement that the best thing to do was to secure the influence of his wife. David B. Oliver, Dr. S. S. Woodburn and Thomas McHenry were appointed to go to the Trimble residence this morning at 9 o'clock and make the nomination. Dr. Woodburn is confident of success.

RALPH STRAWBRIDGE,
Fusion Candidate for Assembly in the Fifth District.

Trimble a Strong Man.

Trimble is a member of Allegheny common council, and an extremely strong man. He is enthusiastically for the Citizens ticket, but is averse to accepting a nomination, thinking that as a worker in the ranks he can do the movement more good. John Francies is the other candidate in the district. It is expected that the two men will cause the old organization a great deal of trouble. They will be pitted against Speaker William T. Marshall and John H. Henderson.

QUAY'S PITTSBURGH VISIT IS DELAYED BY SENATE FIGHT

He Postpones His Motion on Statehood Bill and Intimates He Will Drop It.

A CALL UPON ROOSEVELT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., June 19.—The expected contest in the senate over the admission of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states did not occur this afternoon. While Senator Quay and his followers were confident of overriding the committee on territories and winning, Chairman Beveridge of that committee and his Republican colleagues were equally confident that the senate would sustain them. The general sentiment around the senate chamber was with the committee, as it would be a great breach of senatorial courtesy to take an important bill away from a committee.

When the time for the contest drew nigh Senator Quay was urged by a number of senators not to force a vote, but to delay a little longer and see if the controversy could not be amicably settled. This he agreed to, and in open senate gave notice that he would not press his motion until Monday, and probably not even then.

This course has disarranged all of the senator's personal plans. It had been his intention to leave here tomorrow night or Saturday for Pittsburgh and Beaver to look after some matters connected with his selection as state chairman. In Pittsburgh it was his intention to confer with Recorder Brown, chairman of the Republican city committee, and with the chairman of the county committee, and arrange details for the campaign. Now he will be unable to leave here before Monday night at the earliest, perhaps not until a later date.

Senator Quay visited the White House this morning to consult with President Roosevelt on some matters. It was their first meeting since the Republicans declared for the nomination of the president in 1904, and the president took occasion to thank the senator heartily for this expression of confidence.

WAITNEIGHT IS NOT SUSTAINED

Presbyterian Presbytery Takes Final Action in the Case From the Cheswick Church.

The session of the Cheswick Presbyterian church in the now noted "Cheswick case" has been sustained. The commission appointed by the Allegheny Presbytery to sift the affair to the bottom made a report last night at a presbytery meeting held in Natrona.

The commission, through its chairman, the Rev. Dr. H. D. Lindsay, reported that the session of the church did proper in the whole, though in some minor things it was at fault. The result will be a temporary suspension of W. W. Waitneight of the Cheswick church until such time as he sees fit to repent.

The presbytery at its meeting last night ordained and installed the Rev. D. P. Williams as pastor of the Natrona church.

KING OF SAXONY DEAD.

Prince George, His Eldest Brother, Succeeds to the Throne.

DRESDEN, SAXONY, June 19.—King Albert died at 8:05 p. m. today. The king of Saxony has no children. Consequently Prince George, his eldest brother, is heir to the throne of Saxony.

VIENNA, June 19.—Emperor Francis Joseph was greatly affected upon learning of the death of King Albert of Saxony, and it is announced his majesty intends to attend the funeral.

LONDON, June 19.—Owing to the death of King Albert of Saxony the ball which was to have been given at Windsor Castle next Friday night will be abandoned.

FOUR KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF GUNPOWDER

Others Are Injured and Two Are Expected to Die.

CAUSE OF ACCIDENT REMAINS A MYSTERY

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Johnstown, Pa., June 19.—By a mysterious explosion of gunpowder at Sewell, 19 miles from here, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, four men lost their lives and four were injured, two fatally. The explosion occurred in the coining mill of the Cambria Powder Company, and none of the injured or anyone connected with the works is able to give any information on the cause of the accident.

The Dead.

J. B. SMITH, of Sewell, aged about 40 years; married and leaves a large family.

CHARLES DROVER, of Wapwallopen, Luzerne county, aged 35 years; unmarried.

JOHN RHODES, of Sewell, aged about 38 years; married and leaves a family.

W. F. BRACKEN, of Sewell, died at the hospital tonight in this city; married and leaves three children.

The Injured.

FRANK WAKEFIELD, of Seward, married, fatally burned.

THOMAS GORDON, unmarried, fatally burned.

JOHN B. MCCULLOUGH, of Seward, slightly burned about hands and feet.

SEYMOUR ALLISON, of Seward, slightly burned.

The explosion occurred as the men were loading a lot of powder on a wagon driven by Rhodes. The team frightened, it is said, and ran away. Smith had charge of the coining mill and others were sent to the plant to assist in loading the kegs into the vehicle.

Suddenly the explosion let go and the flames flew in every direction, the powder sticking in the clothing of the men and then becoming ignited by the flames, burning into the flesh of the victims, transforming them into charred and shapeless masses.

A strange feature of the accident is the fact that Drover was able to walk 300 yards from the scene of the explosion before he fell dead from his terrible burns, his flesh, like that of the other victims, being practically reduced to a crisp.

The shanty in which the coining mill is located was ignited by the explosion of the powder and was buraed to the ground, but the financial loss is slight.

DECISION AGAINST VERNER.

St. Petersburg to Electrify Railroads Owned by the City.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The ministry of the interior has approved the municipality's proposal to electrify the street railroads owned by the city, and the municipal authorities have been authorized to accept a favorable bid for their construction.

This decision is unfavorable to Murray A. Verner of Pittsburgh, who sought a franchise embracing the whole city. It is said that the Westinghouse people will probably secure the contract.

Fifteenth Ward Republicans.

The Fifteenth ward Republican association last night elected ex-Senator John Upperman president; T. A. Warren, vice president; E. J. Martin, secretary, and Samuel F. Kerr, treasurer. Resolutions endorsing Recorder Brown and the city administration were adopted.

OUR EDUCATION DOES MUCH FOR DEVELOPMENT

Charles Emory Smith Had That Theme for Eloquent Address.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

Interesting Graduating Event at the Carnegie Music Hall Last Evening.

HONORARY DEGREES FOR BRILLIANT MEN

The commencement exercises of the collegiate, engineering and legal departments of the Western University of Pennsylvania were held in the Pittsburgh Carnegie music hall last night. Forty-five pupils received diplomas and honorary degrees were conferred upon six prominent men. The speaker of the occasion was ex-Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith.

The honorary degrees conferred by Prof. John A. Brashear, acting chancellor of the university, and those receiving them were as follows:

Doctor of laws, the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, ex-postmaster general.

Doctor of laws, the Rev. Thomas Ellsworth Cramblet, president of Bethany (W. Va.) college, received in his behalf by Col. Samuel Harden Church.

Doctor of divinity, the Rev. John Stewart Robertson, class of 1846, of Dayton, O., received by the Rev. Alexander Gilchrist.

Doctor of divinity, the Rev. John Mowry MacGonigle, class of 1871, of St. Augustine, Fla., received by the Rev. Richard Holmes, D. D.

Doctor of divinity, Joseph Leonard Levy, rabbi of the Congregation Rodeph Shalom, Pittsburgh.

Doctor of pharmacy, James Hartley Beal, professor Pittsburgh College of Pharmacy.

Appeared in Cap and Gown.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the graduates, led by the five young women of the class, the members of the board of trustees, the faculty and the guests of honor took seats upon the stage, the graduates forming lines on either side. The graduates in their mortar-board caps and long black gowns, and the faculty in their hoods of bright colors, presented a pretty picture.

The exercises opened with an invocation pronounced by the Rev. John Crockat White, D. D. The salutatory was delivered by Edith Margaret Miller. Acting Chancellor Brashear, in a short address, introduced the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, who spoke on "Practical Education in American Development."

In opening Mr. Smith said he was glad to come to Pittsburgh, and begged to be excused should he wander from his text. He said the work of education in this country is of the greatest importance. He pictured the intellectual life of the Romans and compared it with that of the present.

Age of Material Development.

Coming down to the present, he said that this is the age of scientific development and material achievement, and that the fields which are open to success are infinitely broadened. Mr. Smith referred to the Buffalo and St. Louis expositions as illustrations of our architectural development; of the wonders of the transmitted voice and other achievements, which he declared to be the result of a practical education.

Mr. Smith spoke of how America excels other countries, and of its opportunities, race, government, history, hopes and mission having placed it in the lead. He pictured the condition of the world previous to the establishment of the American republic, to show that from this inventive genius developed, and of these great developments nearly all of them came from Americans. He declared that the applied forces energized by American institutions and the American people have given this country a growth unparalleled. He declared that our advancement during the past 30 years was phenomenal, until now our manufacturing product is two and one-half times greater than Great Britain's. Our product is greater than that of England, France and Germany combined.

This Country's Greatness.

As to the raw material this country has just begun to scratch the surface, while other nations have almost exhausted the supply. He declared that our productive capacity is four times greater than that of Europe, and that with the superior equipment and the native adaptability this country can compete with Europe on her own ground.

HON. CHARLES EMORY SMITH.

To illustrate the energetic American, Mr. Smith told of how Gen. Kitchener, wanting a 700-foot bridge, England could not produce it in less than seven months, while America furnished it in seven weeks and with material from Pennsylvania. He said the Americans are magnificent spenders, but in spite of this they pay to labor more than half of the earnings of Great Britain.

He declared that the Americans are resourceful and the leaders of the world. American advancement has been strictly upon logical lines and expansion has been the law of our development, there having been no systematical development without it since the Louisiana purchase. He declared that there is no danger that the United States will follow other countries as a territorial seeker, and that what has been done in the Philippines was voluntary. The world is already partitioned, and from South America the people do not seek anything except the feeling of Pan-American brotherhood.

Tribute to McKinley.

Mr. Smith said that when the United States took the Philippines it was the only nation that sought to protect, and followed this up by paying a great tribute to the stand of President McKinley during the trouble with China, declaring it was he who discovered the conditions were not those of war.

In conclusion Mr. Smith dwelt upon the present opportunities for men and women.

Acting Chancellor Brashear next conferred the degrees upon the graduates, to each making a few well-chosen remarks. The list of graduates is as follows:

Bachelor of arts—James Alexander Chambers, Walter LeRoy Copeland, Charles Stanley Exner, Laurence Barrett Hurst, Katherine Foster, Aimee Winifred Friesell, Mabel Kirk, John Sherman Lambie, Edith Margaret Miller, Jesse Edwards McBride.

Bachelor of philosophy—Charles Reed McCune, Alexander Silverman, Emma Lyall Sharp.

Civil engineer—Frederick Bernard Chalfant, Lemuel Harper Dougherty, Will Noble Gibson, Frank Rupert Ramsey, William Archie Weldin, James Garfield Wiley.

Mechanical engineer—Guy Fulton Linn, Malcolm Findley McConnell.

Electrical engineer—Walter Hermisa Eigenbeis, Hugh Lee Fullerton, Richard Watson Wallace.

Mining engineer—Frank Fruit Mail.

Bachelor of laws—John Willock Brown, John Shaw Crumbine, Washington and Jefferson college, '99; Ralph Carter Davis, Bernice Holbrook Evans, A. B., Yale, '99; John Rogers Flannery, A. B., Mt. St. Mary's college, '99; Harry David Hamilton, A. B., Washington and Jefferson college, '98; Harry Benton Hartman, Charles Edward Martin, John James McAliney, John Bayington McBride, A. B., Washington and Jefferson, '96; James Francis McKenna, George Elliott Peebles, Princeton, '99; Harry Ralph Phillips, John McBride Russell, A. B., Washington and Jefferson college, '99; Sydney Porter Scott, A. B., Washington and Jefferson college, '99; A. Charles Tipitz, Harry Westerkoser, Robert Galley Woodside, A. B., Washington and Jefferson college, '99.

Master of arts—Joseph Logan Porter, A. B.

Diploma Refused at Mt. Union.

ALLIANCE, O., June 19.—(Special.)—The annual commencement exercises of Mt. Union college closed today in a whirl of sensations. When President Riker announced the degrees the name of Vernon C. Snyder of Leetonia was omitted. Snyder was editor of the "Union," the college annual. At a meeting of the faculty this morning it was decided to withhold young Snyder's diploma because, it is charged, he printed a cartoon on one of the professors, the picture representing the professor with his arm around one of the popular girl students. Snyder threatens to appeal to the courts.

Another sensational feature of the close of the college year was the reported action of some of the trustees to oust President Riker on the alleged grounds of inciting the enmity of the students. He was elected for one year only.

When the Rev. Dr. Thomas Dixon, Jr., of New York, orator of the day, began his address the college halls were packed with 5,000 people. Dr. Dixon's subject was "The New America." He is a native of Virginia and a Democrat and portions of his address startled the inhabitants of this stronghold of Republicanism.

Bishop J. W. Hamilton of San Francisco, who graduated in 1865, delivered an address in memory of the Rev. O. N. Hartsorn, founder of the college and for 40 years its president.

The following received degrees: Harry E. Bright, Francis I. Carr, Ernest S. Meredith, Roff H. Carr, John C. Chenot, William F. Finley, William S. Gledhill, Edna T. Grimes, Raymond C. Hailes, Evangeline Lorenz, William W. McEwen, William C. Mumaw, Dean Taylor and Charles E. Teeters, the latter receiving the Newly prize of $20 for being the best scholar of the class.

Stewart, is a member of the Gilchrist Coal Company. He is a school director in the Fourth ward.

Samuel Mawhinney of the Sixth ward is not a new man in legislative experience. He served in the house during the sessions of 1883 and 1886. He is a furnace builder.

Ralph Strawbridge of the Twenty-first ward is a lawyer. He was an active worker for the Citizens during the city fight.

There will be a ratification meeting in Kenyon's hall, Allegheny, Tuesday night by the North Side Citizens party. It will be the opening gun of the county campaign. A number of prominent persons identified with the movement will make speeches.

The groundwork for trouble in the Democratic county convention was laid yesterday at a meeting of the candidates for county commissioner who failed to get a place on the fusion ticket. They met at Democratic headquarters and conferred for over an hour about a plan of action. The candidates present were Dr. W. E. Johnston of Etna, Alderman John A. Martin of the Sixth ward, Patrick Fogerty of the Thirty-sixth ward and Michael Gross of McKeesport. D. J. McCarthy of Braddock was not in attendance. The others explained his absence by saying that it was impossible to get the notice of the meeting to him in time. They say McCarthy will act with them.

Dr. Johnston said that the four candidates and about a dozen of their friends had gathered to consult about making a fight in the county convention for the nomination of two Democrats for county commissioner. It is also probable that an attempt will be made to nominate one candidate for assembly in the First, Third and Sixth districts.

Johnston is opposed to the nomination of Commissioner James A. Clark for a third term. He also makes the prediction that if the ticket is not changed Clark will be defeated.

The commissioner candidates are to look after their own legislative districts. When they get into the county convention the two men who show the most strength will be put forward for the nomination. All the fusion county ticket but the commissioners will be indorsed.

MOB LEADERS FUGITIVES

The Mayor Suspends His Chief of Police and Takes Command in Person—Crowd Dispersed by Police Clubs and City Water.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Newark, N. J., June 19.—Several companies of the First regiment of the National guard and the First troop of cavalry, all of Newark, were ordered out shortly before midnight by Gov. Murphy for strike duty in Paterson.

PATERSON, N. J., June 19.—While anarchists were meeting in a graveyard near Sandy Hill this afternoon the attention of two policemen who were guarding the Dounry and Wadsworth mills was attracted by the actions of the women, who hurled objects at the mill, but from such a distance that little harm was done. They sent a call to police headquarters and a patrol wagon with eight officers was sent to the scene.

When the strikers saw the wagon, their leaders, the men who had been addressing them, rushed away from the crowd. One of the men, who the police say was Galleano, the anarchist, who led the mobs yesterday and Tuesday in attacks upon silk mills, escaped on a horse. When the officers saw that the men were running, they opened fire on them, but did not hit any of the three.

When the police returned from the chase they made 17 arrests, including several women. They were taken to the police headquarters. When the men were searched, several revolvers and murderous-looking stilletos were found in their possession. The prisoners were committed to jail.

Police Captain Knight and his five men, with a few citizens, kept the mob in check until the fire department was called out. The firemen turned eight streams of water upon the crowd and scattered it. Postmaster Armbruster knocked senseless with his fist one man of the mob, and immediately stones began to fly. Three of the police were slightly hurt. The rioters made a rush, but Capt. Knight and his five men laid it of them low with their clubs. It was then the fire department was called out and dispersed the mob with streams from the hose.

Chief of Police Fred C. Graul today was suspended from duty by Mayor Hinchcliffe, who himself assumed the duties of that position. William McQueen, the Englisman who was prominent at yesterday's meeting before the rioting began, has left the city and is believed to be in New York. Lacking a leader, and keeping out of the heavy rain of the early day, the rioters of yesterday did nothing when a majority of the mills they closed yesterday by their violence resumed work.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL.

Ninety-Three Boys and Girls Are Graduated from the Institution.

Freed from the care of studies the 93 members of the Pittsburgh Central High school class of 1902 made merry last night with their class night exercises in the school chapel. Over 1,000 friends and relatives of the young graduates taxed the chapel to the utmost.

The program of the evening was as follows:

Prayer by the Rev. J. W. Righter; master's address by Dudley Stirling Simms; eulogy, full of praise for the girls and sarcasm for the boys, Miss Elizabeth Mackay; declamation, Thomas A. Lambie; retrospect, dealing with the progress of the class during four years, by Miss Mary F. Herman; poem, dealing with the most wonderful of classes from all points of view, by Victor J. Levy; prophecy, a dream of the class in the future, by John W. Todd; the will, dealing with the death of the class and its bequests to the juniors, by Ellis Mills Frost; presentation of gifts symbolical of the receiver's leading characteristic, by H. Weber Crawford.

A set of Parkman's "History of the United States" was presented Prof. Rynerson by the class. A dance in the chapel followed the program.

TWO SUICIDES AMONG THE FATALITIES REPORTED TO CORONER.

Martha McConkey, Aged 60, Hanged Herself Because She Could Not Reform Others—Patrick Lynch Drank Carbolic Acid After a Family Quarrel.

Because she was unable to reform men and women of the drinking habit Martha McConkey, 60 years old, of the rear of No. 609 Herron avenue, committed suicide yesterday by hanging herself with a clothesline on the door of her room. After fastening the rope to the hinge she stepped off a chair and the shock broke her neck.

She was found by Mrs. Joseph Brown, with whom she boarded, shortly after 2 o'clock. Miss McConkey was well-to-do and owned considerable coal land in Washington county.

Miss McConkey was a well-known figure in the downtown districts. Saturday nights she could be seen in the saloons selling a religious paper, the "Sign of the Times," an organ of the Seventh Day Adventists. She was greatly interested in reforming men and women in the drinking habit. Of late she has been troubled because of her failure to impress certain persons.

Miss McConkey had been living with Mrs. Brown since last October. Before this she resided with her sister, Mrs. Douglass, in Castle Shannon. Mrs. Douglass died in February. She is survived by a brother and sister, Mrs. Margaret Wandless and William McConkey. Both live in Washington county. Her body will be sent to Cecil today.

Crazed by drink Patrick Lynch, 42 years old, of Beitler street, near Center avenue, East End, committed suicide last night by drinking two ounces of carbolic acid. He died a half hour later. He was a laborer, and had been out of work for six weeks. He bid his family good-by and going to his room drank the acid. He was found by his wife and children 10 minutes later.

Lynch threatened to kill himself many times during the past six weeks. He had been drinking heavily during that time and had quarreled with his wife and family frequently. Yesterday morning he left the house and told his wife that he was going to look for work.

About 5 o'clock he came home intoxicated. He quarreled with his wife and she left the house for a time. She returned about 7 o'clock and he told her he was going away and bid the children good-by. Mrs. Lynch paid no attention to him and went about her work.

Lynch went upstairs and throwing himself on the bed drained a two-ounce vial of carbolic acid. He lay on the bed and groaned. His wife and children heard him and rushed upstairs. The bottle was at the side of the bed and his wife realized what he had done. She summoned Dr. Cowley, but when he arrived Lynch was dead. Coroner Jesse M. McCleary was notified. Lynch leaves his wife Bridget and three children.

While swimming in the Allegheny river yesterday at the foot of Pine street, Allegheny, Charles Reithmiller, 12 years old, of East street, Allegheny, was drowned. His body was recovered and taken to the morgue.

Some Good Choosing for Today

from several purchases which our buyer of Women's Wraps and Dresses forwarded from New York by express. You have already had the news, so a mere reference is all that is needed.

Traveling and Driving Ulsters, mohair in various colors, and blue gloria silk, $7.50, $10 and $12—over a third under their regular prices.

Walking Skirts in a fine range of colors and made of excellent materials, $5. Identical with those we sold earlier for $10 and $12.

Fine White Dresses, many in elbow sleeve style, Dimities, fine India Linons and Organdies, handsomely trimmed in laces, embroidery, flounces and tucks, $15, $16.50, $18, $20 and up to $30.

We cannot recall the day when we had such a trio of good things, and we are flattered by the good words said of the purchases.

The Neat Side of Clothing.

We don't care what age a man is; we don't care what age the boy is, after he gets to the reasoning stage—both admire neatness in their clothes.

We give neatness the most careful consideration. Unless the cloth is good you can't have neatness. And the tailoring must also be good.

Everything as you would have it in the clothes mentioned below:

Men's Fancy Suits, quite a collection of broken lines that formerly sold for $15 and $18, come today and tomorrow and choose for $12.50. Materials are cheviots and worsteds in stripes and some plain colors that men affect.

Men's Black Suits: Undressed Worsted and Thibet for $15; Worsted Cheviot for $20; Undressed Worsted for $22; fine Thibet for $25; English Thibet, silk lined, for $32—as good as any tailor's suits at double the price. All the styles and sizes.

Men's Serge Suits—skeleton style—fast blue—very light weight—$10. This is our special suit, easily the equal of many $15 suits. Finer weaves of serge suits, but not a whit more comfortable, $18 to $25.

Young men's suits in quiet patterns of green and gray and brown mixtures in worsteds; checks, stripes and plaids in cheviots; plaid homespuns; plain black cheviots and worsteds—$10, $12.50, $15 and $20.

Young men's Norfolk and Outing Suits—a style now worn by hundreds of young men for $9 and up to $16.

Hundreds of Outing Suits in all the materials used. Wool crash is a great favorite. We sell these for $10, and from that price there is an easy range for the various materials up to fine light-weight Scotch homespun for $28.

In tropical suits for young men we have everything that can be called natty and in the special styles that belong to young men. A neat knock-about suit, of dark mixtures, very dressy, for $8.50. Or light patterns at the same price. Or plain blue serge and plain black cheviot for the same money.

Special Sale of Boys' Knee Trousers Suits—8 to 15 year sizes—blue serges and fancy mixtures—broken sizes from our $5 and $6 lines today and tomorrow at $3.50 a suit.

In the regular lines of boys' double-breasted knee pant suits there are all the materials worn, both in plain and fancy colors, including flannels and serges, and the prices are from $5 to $12.

Little boys' Sailor Suits, light and dark blue checked flannels, and red and gray serges, for $2.50, reduced from $5 and $6.

Our Great Half Price Sale of Millinery.

Candidly, we do not believe there was ever such another half price sale that had as many varieties of stylish headwear for women. Certainly none that ever had such prepossessing creations.

It is the talk of the town, especially the Phipps & Atchison collection of Outing and Golf Hats. The idea of the swell Hats of that swell Fifth avenue firm of New York selling for half prices—why it is almost incredible!

As we have often said, no woman ever has too many hats. Add another to your collection, today or Saturday, from this list:

Beautifully trimmed Hats of Tuscan Straw, Chiffon, Flowers, Foliage, and other fine finishes, $1 were $2.50—$2.50 were $3.50—$3.50 were $5—$5 were $10—$7.50 were $15—$10 were $22—$14 were $28—$17.50 were $35.

Shirtwaist Hats of every wearable shape, every style and color—Phipps & Atchison's best and latest styles, selling for half prices: $2.50, $3.50, $5, $7.50.

Children's Hats ready-to-wear—cheap tables—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.

Children's Flowers and Ribbon Trimmed Hats—half regular prices—$3.50, $5, $7.50—half usually asked.

New arrivals of fascinating Golf Bonnets, Ping Pong Hoods and Black Mull Hats—either inexpensive.

Untrimmed Hats, a New York purchase of recent date, all Summer shapes—half prices: 25c were 50c—50c were $1—$1 were $2.

Artificial Flowers, ridiculously low—American Beauty Roses, Violets and all varieties—10c bunch were 25c—25c were 50c—50c were $1.

A special table of slightly mussed Hats—just handled a little too much—regular prices $2.50, $3.50, $5—choice today and tomorrow, $1 each.

Interesting Reading About Different Soaps.

Interesting because there are some soaps mentioned that will cost anyone $2 a cake. Not everybody is going to put down two dollars for a cake of soap no bigger than a four-cent cake of Turkish bath soap, but as this store is a store of and for the people it carries every good brand of soap—$2-a-cake soap for those who want it.

Today and tomorrow you will be able to save some pennies per cake on each of the following brands—probably treble the assortment you could find anywhere else.

CONTEST OVER BENNETT WILL HAS COMMENCED

The Million-Dollar Estate of the Late Pittsburgher in Litigation.

TWO WITNESSES TESTIFY

The Hearing Was Then Adjourned to July 2—Text of the Disputed Will in Which Some Pittsburgh People Are Interested.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Freehold, N. J., June 19.—The contest over the will of the late Henry M. Bennett, owner of the Bijou building and the Bijou theater in Pittsburgh, and who died at Farmingdale, N. J., recently, was begun here today. But two witnesses were examined, George Hulick and Miss A. B. Kelly, and the case was continued to July 2, when the hearing will resume at Long Branch.

George Hulick of Asbury Park, a witness to the will, was on the stand during the morning. He testified to having seen Bennett execute the will at Farmingdale on September 27, 1901. Bennett had the will read to him, made a correction and signed it in the presence of Miss A. B. Kelly and Hulick, the witness said. Miss Kelly testified this afternoon.

Mr. Hulick said he was sure that Mr. Bennett was in his right mind. During the time it took for the will to be executed, corrected and signed, no one came into the room to give him a drink or medicine, or in any way attend him. No one was present, Hulick said, but Mr. Bennett, the lawyer, Mr. Hawkins, Miss Kelly and the witness.

Mr. Bennett died at Farmingdale on April 11, 1902, after an illness of over a year, during which time he suffered the amputation of his right leg at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh. He was the owner of the Bijou theater and the Bijou office building on Penn avenue, Pittsburgh; a model stock farm of 400 acres at Farmingdale, N. J., and other real estate at Avon-by-the-Sea, N. J., in New York city and elsewhere, all of which is estimated to be worth over $1,000,000.

The Chief Beneficiaries.

The chief beneficiaries under the will are Laura Biggar, who for several years made her home with Mr. Bennett, Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, who was his business manager, and Ira H. Shattuck of Minneapolis, a brother of Mrs. Bennett.

Immediately after Mr. Bennett's death a caveat was filed in New Jersey by Attorneys Colie & Duffield of Newark, and in this city by Attorneys Patterson, Sterrett & Acheson, representing Samuel C. Bennett and Mrs. Mary Conant, children of Judge Edward H. Bennett, and Mrs. Emma Beckwith of Burlington, Vt., the daughter of the late Mrs. Mary Hach, the only sister of Henry M. Bennett. Legal proceedings resulted in the appointment of John W. Hawkins, the attorney, of Asbury Park, as the administrator in New Jersey, and James V. Platt as administrator in this state, pendente lite. The contestants are opposing the will on the ground of undue influence on the part of the people by whom Mr. Bennett was surrounded, and for the reason that they claim his mind was unsound for some time prior to his death. Attorney J. R. Eastman of Boston, representing the contestants, has been in Pittsburgh several times since Mr. Bennett's death, looking up evidence to sustain the case.

The contestants place some importance on the remarkable fact that R. M. Gulick, Mr. Bennett's partner in the management of the Bijou theater for 18 years, and also in the Bijou circuit of theaters for several years, while he is mentioned in the instruments, yet under it he receives no bequest. The clause referring to the continuation of the partnership of the firm of R. M. Gulick & Co. for five years with the estate having a two-thirds interest and R. M. Gulick one-third interest in the profits, with a salary of $30 per week to be paid R. M. Gulick during the theatrical season as heretofore, is also claimed to be peculiar, as Mr. Gulick's salary has always been $40 per week.

The Text of the Will.

Mr. Bennett's will in full follows:

In the name of God, Amen. I, Henry M. Bennett, a resident of the township of Neptune, in the county of Monmouth, and state of New Jersey, for 20 years past, being of sound mind and memory and reasonably so in body, but recognizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, as follows:

First—It is my will, and I do direct, that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid and satisfied, as soon as may be reasonable after my decease.

Second—I give, bequeath and devise unto my beloved brother-in-law, Ira H. Shattuck, now residing in Minneapolis, Minn., the Windsor Stock farm, situate in the township of Howell, in the county of Monmouth, and state of New Jersey, containing about 400 acres, more or less (and valued by me, without the stock, utensils and furniture thereon, at $50,000), to him and his assigns forever.

Third—I also give and bequeath unto the said Ira H. Shattuck all the horses, brood mares, colts, cattle, wagons, carriages, farming tools, furniture and everything belonging to me that may be on said farm, in Howell township, at the time of my decease, excepting three colts or horses that may be selected by William Duddleston, under a provision of this, my will, provided that he is in my employ at the time of my decease.

Fourth—It is also my wish, and I do hereby direct, that my executors shall pay all outstanding bills for feed, blacksmithing, labor and everything else that may be owing in connected with said farm, up to the first day of the month following my decease, so that the said farm will go to the said Ira H. Shattuck free and clear of all debts and incumbrances.

An $1,800 Annuity.

Fifth—I give and bequeath to Laura Biggar the sum of $1,800 annually during her natural life, which said sum shall be paid to her in equal monthly payments; and I authorize and empower my executors to set aside a sum out of my estate sufficient to annually yield the annual sum of $1,800, and, on the death of the said Laura Biggar, I give and bequeath the principal sum from which said annuity shall be derived, to her son, Willis J. Biggar, if living, and if not, then I give and bequeath the said principal sum to the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Asbury Park, New Jersey, provided such a society is in existence, and if not in existence, then to the mayor and council of the city of Asbury Park for the purpose of forming and maintaining such a society.

Sixth—I give, bequeath and devise to Laura Biggar the home and lot known as number 119 East Eighty-third street, New York city, for and during her natural life, to occupy, or to receive the rents, issues and profits thereof, and at her death I give, bequeath and devise the aforesaid house and lot to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to animals of Asbury Park, and to its successors and assigns forever, if such a society is in existence there at that time. If not, then I give and devise said property to the mayor and council of Asbury Park for the purpose of the establishment of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals in said place, and for the purpose of conducting and operating said society.

Seventh—I give and bequeath to Laura Biggar the sum of $1,000, to be paid within ten days from the probate of my will, absolutely.

Eighth—I give and devise unto Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the house known as number 21 North Diamond street, Allegheny City, Pennsylvania, to him and his heirs and assigns forever.

Land for McNulty.

Ninth—I give, bequeath and devise unto Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, Pa., an undivided two-thirds interest in the 40 acres of land that adjoins the town of West Brownsville, Pa., to him and his heirs and assigns forever. And the said land being in litigation, should the same be sold, I give and bequeath to him the proceeds of my interest in said property.

Tenth—I give and bequeath to Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, Pa., my gold watch and chain in remembrance of me.

Eleventh—I give and bequeath to my friend, William T. Keough, of the city of New York, my diamond stud, weighing about seven carats, as a remembrance of me.

Twelfth—I give and bequeath to the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of the city of Asbury Park, the sum of $10,000, the interest of said sum to be used for the purpose of protecting dumb animals. If no society exists for the prevention of cruelty to animals in Asbury Park at the time of my decease, then I give and bequeath to the mayor and council of Asbury Park the sum of $10,000 to found such society; the income thereof to be used for the protection of dumb animals.

Thirteenth—I give and bequeath to my nephew, Samuel Crocker Bennett, of Boston, the sum of $5,000, absolutely, and if he be deceased at the time of my death, then I give and bequeath said sum to his heirs.

Fourteenth—I give and bequeath to my niece, Mary Bennett, sister of Samuel Crocker Bennett, of the state of Massachusetts, the sum of $5,000, absolutely; and if she be dead at the time of my decease, then I give and bequeath said sum to her heirs.

Fifteenth—I give and bequeath to George B. White, of Farmingdale, the sum of $1,000, absolutely.

Sixteenth—I give and bequeath to William Duddleston three horses or colts; he to have the choice and selection of such three horses and colts as may be on my Windsor Stock farm, in Howell township, at the time of my decease. Also one sulky, one cart, one training and driving harness, and the boots and blankets belonging with said harness, together with the sum of $1,000 in cash. All of which bequests are made upon the condition that the said William Duddleston is in my employ at the time of my decease.

Seventeenth—I give and bequeath to Mary Diskin of Pittsburgh, Pa., the sum of $500 absolutely.

May Dispose of Real Estate.

Eighteenth—I give and devise all my real estate in the city of New York, except the property located at No. 113 East Eighty-third street, New York city, and herein disposed of, to my executors hereinafter named, in trust, for the purposes specified in my will, with power to sell and dispose of the same at public or private sale, at such times and upon such terms and in such manner as to them shall seem meet and proper. And it is my will that the same be done as speedily as possible.

Nineteenth—I request my executors, should they be in need of any legal services in the city of New York, that they employ the services of Charles A. Winter, of the firm of Hobbs & Gifford, 59 Pine street, to represent them in the matter.

Twentieth—It is my will, and I do order, that should any of the devisees or legatees within mentioned, attempt to in any wise dispute or set aside or annul this, my will, for any cause whatever, then in that case the share herein before bequeathed to such legatee or devisee, shall go to and constitute a portion of the residue of my estate, and not to the said devisee or legatee contesting, or attempting to contest this, my will.

Twenty-first—I give and bequeath to my executors, hereinafter named, in trust, the sum of $5,000 to be expended by them in the erection and construction of a gateway to the entrance of the Mount Prospect cemetery, located immediately west of Asbury Park, at such time as they shall deem most expedient and proper. Said gateway to be constructed of stone, to be obtained from Willard's Ledge, situate in Burlington, Vt., unless for good reasons other stone should be preferred, and to have thereon a bronze tablet, set into the stone over the arch, with this, or some other suitable inscription, "Presented (or Erected) by Henry M. Bennett."

Twenty-second—I give and bequeath to the Monmouth Trust & Safe Deposit Company of Asbury Park the sum of $1,000, in trust, the interest thereof to be used for the purpose of keeping in good condition my cemetery plots in Mount Prospect cemetery, immediately west of Asbury Park.

Diamonds to Laura Biggar.

Twenty-third—I give and bequeath to Laura Biggar of New York city, a pair of diamond earrings (formerly Mrs. Bennett's), one diamond cross, and all the diamond rings and jewelry of every kind and character which came to me from Mrs. Bennett, and now in my safes at Avon, New Jersey, and in the same house in Howell township, where I now am.

Twenty-fourth—I also give and bequeath unto the said Laura Biggar all the furs and clothing which I have in my possession which formerly belonged to Mrs. Bennett.

Twenty-fifth—It is my will and I do direct my executors hereinafter named, to continue in business with R. M. Gulick in the management, operation and conduct of the Bijou theater, in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., under the name of R. M. Gulick & Co., for the period of five years on the same terms as heretofore, if the said R. M. Gulick should be willing to continue the same, namely: One-third of the profits to go to the said R. M. Gulick, and $30 a week during the theatrical season. If the said R. M. Gulick should not wish to continue the said business on said terms, then my executors are to continue it in their names, as the representatives of my estate, for the same period of five years. The profits of said business to be applied by my executors, first, for the completion of the Bijou building in Pittsburgh, Pa.; and then for the payment of the mortgage thereon, as provided for in next paragraph, said paragraph being number 26.

The Bijou Building.

Twenty-sixth—I give and devise unto my executors, hereinafter named, in trust, all that certain property and real estate, known as the "Bijou" building and the "Bijou theater," situate on Penn avenue near Sixth street, in the city of Pittsburgh, in the state of Pennsylvania, being a tract of land 120 feet on Penn avenue, and 160 feet deep, said trust being created for the following purposes, namely, to complete the said buildings and to pay off the mortgage encumbrance now upon the same, and I hereby authorize, empower and direct my said trustees to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said buildings of every kind and character, and apply them, first, to the payment of the taxes, as they shall become due on said buildings, and the interest as it shall accrue upon said mortgage encumbrance. The balance of the rents, issues and profits of said buildings to be applied and expended by my trustees for the completion of said buildings, and for the payment and in satisfaction of the mortgage encumbrance thereon, for the period of five years, unless the purposes of this trust shall have been satisfied before that time.

Twenty-seventh—I give and devise unto Laura Biggar of New York city and Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, hereinbefore mentioned, to them and their heirs and assigns forever, the lands and buildings in the last paragraph above mentioned, after the completion of the aforesaid trust, unless the said trust shall have been completed in less time than the period of five years aforesaid, in which case the title to said property is to immediately vest in said parties, and their heirs and assigns forever, in the following proportions: Sixty per cent interest in said property to Laura Biggar and 40 per cent in said property to the said Peter J. McNulty.

To Children of Heirs.

Twenty-eighth—In case the said Laura Biggar or Peter J. McNulty hereinbefore mentioned should die before the title to the "Bijou" building and the "Bijou theater" vests in them, under this will, then in that case I give, bequeath and devise 40 per cent of said buildings and property to the children of Peter J. McNulty, share and share alike, to them and their heirs and assigns forever. And in the case of the death of the said Laura Biggar, I give, bequeath and devise 60 per cent of said buildings and property to Willis J. Biggar, son of the said Laura Biggar, upon his arriving at the age of 21 years, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. The other 40 per cent in case of the death of the said Laura Biggar, I give, bequeath and devise unto the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of Asbury Park, N. J., and its successors and assigns forever, for the purpose of using the income thereof for the protection of dumb animals.

Twenty-ninth—I authorize my said trustees, if they deem it expedient, to construct a row of offices in the court over the dressing room of the "Bijou theater" aforesaid, and empower them to lower the theater floor so that the same shall be on the ground floor of the building, if they think best so to do.

Thirtieth—All the rest and residue of my property of whatever kind and wheresoever situate, I give, bequeath and devise unto my executors, hereinafter named, and to the survivors or survivor of them, in trust, for the purposes specified in my will, with full power to sell and dispose of the same, at public or private sale, at such times and upon such terms and in such manner as to them shall seem best and proper. And should any portion of said residue be left, after complying with all the provisions of my will, then, in that case, I give, bequeath and devise the balance of said residue to Laura Biggar of New York city, and Peter J. McNulty of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Richard M. Gulick of Pittsburgh, to them and their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike.

Thirty-first—I hereby revoke all former wills and codicils by me, at any time, heretofore made.

Executors Are Named.

Lastly—I hereby nominate and appoint Peter J. McNulty and James W. Platt of the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., and John F. Hawkins of Asbury Park, N. J., the executors of this my last will and testament.

If either of my said executors die, or decline to serve, then it is my will, and I do appoint Frank Armstrong of the city of Pittsburgh, to take the place of the executor who declines to serve or is removed by death.

My said executors are not required to give bonds, no matter where they reside.

I give and bequeath to my executors, John F. Hawkins and James Platt, aforesaid, the sums of $5,000 each for their services as executors of this my last will and testament, which is to be accepted by them in lieu of any and all other charges or percentages of any kind, which said sum is to be paid to my said executors $1,000 yearly until fully paid.

And it is my will that the said Peter J. McNulty, in lieu of the bequests and devises hereinbefore mentioned and made to him, shall act as executor without additional compensation or percentage or fees of any kind or character whatsoever.

In witness whereof I, the said Henry M. Bennett, testator, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of September, 1901.

(Signed) HENRY M. BENNETT (L.S.)

Signed, acknowledged and declared by the said Henry M. Bennett as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses. (Signed) ALLENA H. KELLY,
Asbury Park, N. J.

PRIZES AWARDED.

The Pittsburgh Bank for Savings Makes Awards in the Recent Contest on the "Advantages of Money Savings"—Several Hundred Papers Were Submitted and the Awards Made After Two Days' Session of the Committee.

Nothing recently created so much interest among the young people, not only of this vicinity, but for hundreds of miles around, as the contest conducted by the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, Fourth avenue and Smithfield street, this city, on the advantages of money saving. Several hundred papers were passed on by the committee consisting of Prof. Samuel Andrews, superintendent of the Pittsburgh schools; Prof. T. D. Senson, principal of the Sixteenth ward public schools; the Rev. T. D. Thomas, pastor of the Welsh Presbyterian church; S. F. Frisby of the advertising department of The Pittsburgh Dispatch, and W. L. McCullagh of the district attorney's office. Thirty-nine prizes were distributed, the first four of $50, $25, $16 and $16 being awarded to Fred H. Otte II. of 128 Linden avenue, city; W. M. Bennett, 720 Rhoid avenue, city; W. J. Bruce Devor, Randolph, Neb., and Elsie M. Braun, 828 Mathilda street, city, respectively, and 16 prizes of $7.50 each and 25 prizes of $5 each to young people in various sections of the country.

With a few exceptions the various papers submitted were of rather high order, and reflect great credit on the young composers, making it no easy task for the committee to make their selections.

Unparalleled Values in Women's Suits.

No need to wait for your dressmaker if you want to go away in a hurry; come right to this suit department and find the latest style suits at such prices as you would have to pay for the making, and in some cases more than you have to pay for the making alone; no old, out of date, unsalable styles, but the newest and best, made by men tailors, bought from one of New York's best manufacturers at our own price. Handsome black cheviot suits at $10. Also a few in blue and brown, which are very suitable for young ladies, 14, 16 and 18, and small women; we have all sizes in the black.

The black suits which we are offering at $15 we do not believe were ever equaled in value, either in this or any other store. Made from fine all-wool cheviot, broadcloth and blind cheviot; latest style flounced skirt, lined with good quality percaline; double-breasted, half-fitting jacket, lined with heavy taffeta silk, faced with moire or peau de sole silk—these $15 suits are a wonder—most houses would say they were a bargain at $25, and they really would be. Our clearance sale price is $15.

FREE EXCURSION SATURDAY, JUNE 21 BRADDOCK PARK

PROMPTLY AT 4 P. M. THERE WILL BE A GRAND

BALLOON ASCENSION!

The world-famed Alivini of Cincinnati, Ohio, distinguished aeronaut, will ascend into the air in his famous flying machine. After he has risen 300 feet from the earth he will scatter to the winds three clear deeds to Braddock Park Lots. Each of the persons who first gets possession of a deed after it has fallen will be entitled to the lot specified therein free of all charge. There will be detectives in citizens' clothes on the grounds to see that there is fair play.

Perhaps a more thrilling sight will never be witnessed! The renowned Alivini's reputation as an aeronaut is world-wide. He has interested the scientists of Europe and has accomplished many feats in aerial work thought to be impossible.

After the great Alivini has passed the deeds to the multitude he will ascend 2,700 feet higher into the air and when at this height from the earth he will be shot from the mouth of a cannon.

ASTONISHMENT EXPRESSED OVER THE MARVELOUS CHANGE AND IMPROVEMENTS!

Braddock Park Plan of Lots is not a rifle's shot from Braddock and adjoins North Braddock Borough, skirting the property of Judge William G. Hawkins. It is directly back of the city lowland that marks the business district and downtown section. It is the very center of the new section which is esteemed high-class and preferred for modern homes. Palatial residences are all around it. Property here has changed hands at ten to twenty times the original figures paid for it, and acreage beyond Braddock Park Plan of Lots that sold for $24,000 not long ago is today held at $75,000. People who have not seen how Hawkins Avenue and other adjoining property has built up in the last five years will be astonished at the marvelous change. Investments that you could have made in neighboring property with $200 a few years ago would now take $4,000 to $5,000. No man who has not made investigation could begin to see how such a thrilling transfiguration could be possible. But the proofs are here on the grounds just as prominently as they're stated in the newspapers, and when investors see them they will not be slow in snapping up lots at $100, $200, $300 and $400 that are really worth at this very moment twice the figures at which this sale makes it possible for you to buy them.

GRAND CONCERT!

The new Carnegie Library Band, of 42 pieces, has been engaged for the occasion and will render an elaborate and appropriate program. The organization is made up of highly educated musicians with a resulting perfect ensemble. This will be the first appearance of the Carnegie Library Band in their new uniforms.

AUCTION SALE

Twenty of the best Lots in this plan will be auctioned off in special feature sales which will be inaugurated after the excursion trains have arrived.

Ten of the lots will be auctioned off in the morning and ten in the afternoon. The highest bidder will get the lot, no matter how low the bid. The second series of auction sales will be inaugurated at 2:30 P. M. This will give the men who work in the mills an opportunity to attend the sale during their half-holiday. The lots will not be held on the auction block for a longer period than five minutes.

Train Schedule:

The free excursion from Pittsburgh will leave Union Depot on the Pennsylvania Main Line at 1:50 P. M., City Time, stopping at East Liberty, 2:02; Homewood, 2:05; Wilkinsburg, 2:09, and Swissvale, 2:13.

PEOPLE CAME TO HEALTH BUREAU FOR VACCINATION

Five Hundred of Them Received Treatment at the Safety Building.

SMALLPOX DOCTORS BUSY

In Some Portions of the City They Met Resistance, but Were Backed by Police—Twenty Patients Ready for Release.

There was general activity at the bureau of health yesterday. Terrorized by smallpox, fathers, mothers, children, servants, old and young, of all nationalities, thronged to the safety building to be vaccinated. During the day there were 500 persons vaccinated there. Seven thousand vaccine points were given out to citizens and physicians by the clerks. Compulsory vaccination was carried on by the smallpox physicians in different sections of the city and they vaccinated over 700 persons during the day. The district physicians were reported to have vaccinated 4,000 citizens yesterday.

Early in the morning Dr. E. G. Matson started out with seven physicians for Sheridan avenue, in the Nineteenth ward. There are five affected houses in this district and all the residents within 200 yards of these places were vaccinated. The physicians arrived at this section before 9 o'clock, to avoid any detention of the men going to work.

After the men were vaccinated the physicians started in on the women and children. The servants in these houses were also forced to submit to the virus treatment, and when the physicians left this place it was almost 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Then the squad separated and went to different sections of the city. Some went to the Shetland avenue district, and three went to Mt. Washington. On the hill the residents in the vicinity of Plymouth and Virginia avenues were compelled to be vaccinated.

Tried to Resist the Doctors.

There were 200 persons vaccinated in Mt. Washington. The physicians also visited Overhill street, a squad of police accompanying them. There was some disposition on the part of these residents to resist the physicians, especially in Overhill street. Several colored families refused to be vaccinated, but after some expostulation and a sight of the police they changed their minds.

There was an aged colored man in this street who refused to be vaccinated. He claimed that he had been vaccinated several years ago, and it was not necessary again. The doctors assured him that they would not vaccinate him unless it was necessary, and told him to show his scar. This he refused to do until forced by a policeman. When he rolled up his sleeve he exhibited a large scar, and was excused.

Eight suspicious cases were reported during the day, most of them foreigners. Dr. Booth found slight eruptions on their faces, due to skin affliction.

The crowded Municipal hospital was partly relieved of its congestion yesterday. Another large tent was put up for the use of the patients that are recovering from the disease. This tent will accommodate 20 persons. Cots were placed in it, and last night they were occupied by the patients.

Patients Nearly Recovered.

This tent was raised by the patients themselves. At present there are about 90 patients able to go about the hospital grounds. About 20 of them will be released within a month.

About 500 men, women and children were vaccinated by the physicians at the safety building yesterday. Among this number there were a great many foreigners from Webster avenue and the South Side.

The firemen are being vaccinated. Yesterday a physician was sent to No. 6 and No. 8 fire companies. Some of the police were also vaccinated during the day. Ten patrolmen will be vaccinated at each station house every three days. This is done to prevent the entire force from being ill at one time.

In Sharpsburg two boys who were thought to be ill with typhoid fever were discovered to be suffering with smallpox. They were removed to the smallpox hospital. Three men broke quarantine yesterday in Braddock. They had been in quarantine for several days, and made their escape during the night.

Three cases of smallpox were sent to the Municipal hospital yesterday afternoon. Frank McMahon of No. 169 Thirty-sixth street was discovered to be suffering with the disease at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. There were nine inmates in this place and all were quarantined and vaccinated.

Bronesław Jansini of No. 11 Denny court was found to be ill with the disease and taken to the hospital. In this court there are several hundred children and very few of them have been vaccinated. Last night the smallpox physicians went to this place and vaccinated over 150 children. This morning they will resume their work in this place.

Paul Snyder, 19 years old, of No. 2550 Penn avenue, a barber, was discovered to have smallpox last night at 10 o'clock by Health Officers John Benning and John Cashmore. Dr. Booth was summoned and Snyder was taken to the Municipal hospital form No. 3 police station. The inmates of the house were vaccinated aand placed in quarantine.

Payne Favors Postal Currency.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Postmaster General Payne takes a strong position in favor of the establishment of a postal currency, in a letter he sent to congress today transmitting the reports of the committee appointed to consider pending bills providing for a post check system. He inclosed with his letter a measure drawn by the majority of the committee for enactment by congress which he believes will meet the end in view.

Gen. Smith Ordered Home.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Gen. J. K. Smith, who recently was courtmartialed in Manila, has been instructed to proceed to San Francisco, and there await further orders. Just before he was ordered to trial Gen. Smith had been ordered to the United States to take command of the vacant department of Texas. The execution of that order was suspended, and still is, pending the proceedings of the court-martial.

Johnstown Man Is Boomed for Governor; Democrats in Secret Session at Greensburg

BAILEY BOOM FOR GOVERNOR

Cambria County Delegation Expected to Support Johnstown Man.

HAS IDEAS ON TAXATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

JOHNSTOWN, PA., June 19.—It is stated that Cambria's nine delegates to the Erie convention will vote for Warren Worth Bailey of Johnstown if he shall allow his name to go before the Erie convention. The delegates are uninstructed except to the effect that they shall use all honorable efforts to secure the nomination of a candidate for governor standing for the ideas embodied in the resolutions adopted by the Cambria Democratic committee. These resolutions refer especially to franchises and to unequal taxation.

It is alleged that the delegates have signed or are about to sign a paper commending Mr. Bailey's availibility to the Erie convention. And it is further stated that he will have the support of Somerset and Bedford if he permits his name to go before the convention.

He was originally indorsed for the governorship by the Democratic association of Blair county. His name has since been strongly urged for consideration by the Tax Reform league of Pennsylvania and by other reform organizations of a similar character, the Franchise Tax association of Pittsburgh being among them. Mr. Bailey stands for the Tom Johnson idea in taxation and in dealing with franchises.

Pittsburgher Left Legacy.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 19.—As a result of the death of Mrs. Matilda Wildman, which occurred yesterday in Pittsburgh, the Young Men's Christian association of this city will come into possession of property here, worth $20,000, bequeathed to it by Edward N. Wildman, who died two years ago, leaving his widow a life interest in the property. Prior to engaging in the coal business in Pittsburgh, Mr. Wildman was engaged in mercantile business here.

No Trouble at Lovely Funeral.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., June 19.—There was no trouble at the funeral of James S. Lavely which was held here this afternoon. Charles Lavely of Pittsburgh, who assisted his brother George, and his father, David Lavely, in getting possession of the body, stood guard at the grave, evidently expecting trouble.

NEW COMPETITION FOR BEEF TRUST

One Slaughtering Company Chartered and Others Will Follow.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, June 19.—For the purpose of slaughtering cattle and conducting a cold storage business in Pennsylvania in opposition to the beef trust, the Arbogast & Bastian Company of Allentown, with a capital of $200,000, was incorporated today by the state department.

Since the high prices to which meat has been forced by the trust attempts have been made locally throughout the state to establish meat packing concerns to supply the home demand at prices below those created by the trust. A company of the kind was chartered on Monday for operation at Pittsburgh with a large capacity and others will shortly be incorporated in the various parts of Pennsylvania.

LIVELY DEMAND FOR CONNELLSVILLE COKE

Anthracite and West Virginia Miners' Strikes Bring New Purchasers Into Market.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., June 19.—The Courier will say tomorrow:

Coke production in the Connellsville region last week was not quite up to the mark of the week before, but it was within a few tons of 250,000 tons, and that is pretty close to the region's capacity. The strike in the anthracite region and the trouble among the bituminous miners in West Virginia has helped the coke supply for the coke trade. The strike in West Virginia also caused a pound in prices of Connellsville furnace and foundry coke. The furnaces and foundries in the west that had been receiving their coke from West Virginia were cut off last week and their orders are not yet coming back.

Consumers who were running on short supplies had to get out and hustle for Connellsville and outside coke. For Connellsville they were compelled to pay fancy prices if they succeeded in getting any orders placed at all. Few of the coke operators in this region will consider $2.85 for furnace coke. Most of them are asking $3 a ton and some $3.25. They predict that $3 will soon rule in the market. This week a number of contracts that were made at $2.75 a ton expired and an offer of an advance of 50 cents a ton to renew the contracts was refused in several instances.

The detailed report of the operations and output of the region for the week ending June 14 shows a total of 21,426 ovens, of which 20,153 were active and 172 were idle. This was no change compared with the lists of the previous week. The estimated production was 249,333 tons. Every works in the region reported a six days' run, but some of the plants placed their estimated tonnage at a less figure than they did in previous weeks when making full time, which accounts for a smaller total than during other weeks when six-day runs were reported.

Shipments from the Connellsville region last week aggregated 12,247 cars, distributed as follows: To Pittsburgh and river ripples, 4,026 cars; to points west of Pittsburgh, 5,295 cars; to points east of Connellsville, 2,906 cars. The western shipments improved over those of the previous week, as did the eastern shipments, while those to Pittsburgh fell off a little. There was a gain in the total shipments of 182 cars.

The average time in the lower Connellsville region was six days last week. The estimated tonnage was 59,801 tons, from 2,048 active ovens. The shipments were 570 cars, compared with 776 cars the week of June 7.

GAY IS BARRED FROM MEETING

Democratic Contest Committee Holds Star Chamber Session.

FUNK LOOKS LIKE WINNER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GREENSBURG, PA., June 19.—The election contest committee appointed at the recent Democratic convention held a star chamber meeting all afternoon. Double doors and Constable H. F. Bierer stationed in the hall stood in the way of inquisitive persons who attempted to enter. Neither Mr. Gay nor his attorney, and, in fact, none of the candidates, were permitted to be present at the inquiry.

The inquiry into the charge that illegal votes were cast for Mr. Gay is being conducted with the most minute care, according to a member of the board of inquiry, and while but 12 of the disputed districts were gone over this afternoon and evening it is understood that sufficient irregularity has been detected to cause the defeat of Gay, were it shown that he had a majority over Funk.

One member of the committee declares that the count of the total vote cast in all the districts Gay fails 140 votes below Funk.

All the election officers in the disputed districts came to town at the call of the committee, but the inquiry is conducted on such a secret basis that but one witness is admitted at a time, the committee adopting the grand jury system of inquiry. The most intense interest is manifested by both Democrats and Republicans and crowds gathered around the hall awaiting the decision.

From a Wisconsin Business Man:

"I never did a wiser thing than place the Home Study Circle Library on my shelves. I am delighted with the books, and would rather part with any other set in my possession than the Library. The work is of inestimable value to the man whose early educational advantages were meager; but it appeals with equal force to the collegian. The volumes will not remain on library shelves unread. They cover a wide range of subjects, and each is treated carefully but succintly by eminent authorities. What a brilliant list of contributors; men not alone noted for learning, but grace of style as well. I have not found a single dry page.

"The books piesse the eye. They exemplify the highest form of the book-maker's art; the paper is heavy and opaque, the type bold, the illustrations all that could be desired, and the binding substantial and artistic.

LOWEST MILLAGE IN THE STATE IS WHAT THEY BOAST

County Commissioners Complete Financial Statement for the State.

PROUD OF THE SHOWING

An Increase Over Last Year of $12,000,000 in Valuations for Taxation and an Increase of $19,000,000 in Money at Interest Is Shown.

The report of the financial condition of Allegheny county, which has to be forwarded to the state authorities at Harrisburg, was completed yesterday. It contains much interesting data relative to the condition of the county from a monetary standpoint.

An increase in the amount of money at interest of about $19,000,000 over last year, and an increase in the valuation of property for taxable purposes, of about $12,000,000, is shown by this report.

This latter increase, the county commissioners say, is the result of the establishment of the deed registry department, by which bureau business of that nature has been carried on under the best possible conditions, and much new property, such as newly-erected dwellings, has been brought to the notice of the commissioners which prior to the organization of the department might have escaped unnoticed.

During the year it is expected that $200,000 worth of the 1877 riot bonds will be liquidated.

Smallest Millage in the State.

The commissioners pride themselves with having the smallest millage for county purposes of any county in the state. Aside from reducing the riot bonds to $884,500, not including the $200,000 to be paid this year, the county possesses the finest courthouse in the world. It has but recently purchased land for additional jail purposes at a cost of about $350,000 and spent thousands of dollars upon improvements. A coroner's office and morgue is now in course of construction, which will cost about $200,000. These things have been done without any interference with the bonded indebtedness and at the same time there has been a decrease this year of 3-10 of a mill in the millage.

The following list shows the millage in the different counties of the state for county purposes, showing Allegheny to be the lowest:

Rate in Other Counties.

Adams 3, Allegheny 1¼, Armstrong 7½, Beaver 4, Bedford 5, Berks 2½, Blair 4, Bradford 3½, Bucks 2½, Butler 5, Cambria 8, Cameron 12, Carbon 12, Center 3, Chester 2½, Clarion 3, Clearfield 4, Clinton 7, Columbia 4, Crawford 7, Cumberland 3, Dauphin 4, Delaware 3½, Elk 8, Erie 2½, Fayette 3, Forest 10, Franklin 4, Fulton 4, Greene 4, Huntingdon 8, Indiana 5, Jefferson 7, Juniata 5, Lackawanna 7½, Lancaster 3, Laurence 3½, Lebanon 2, Lehigh 2 1-5, Luzerne 3½ on one-fourth valuation, Lycoming 5, McKean 5, Mercer 4, Mifflin 4, Monroe 4, Montgomery 2, Montour 3, Northampton 2 6-10, Northumberland 10, Perry 5, Philadelphia 18, Pike 10, Potter 3, Schuylkill 7, Snyder 3, Somerset 6, Sullivan 10, Susquehanna 10, Tioga 6, Union 3, Venango 4, Warren 5, Wayne 4, Wayne 8, Westmoreland 3½, Wyoming 5, York 4.

The following table shows, by districts the number of taxables and the value of the property taxable for county purposes and for state purposes:

BEET SUGAR STATES BACKING ROOSEVELT

Turning Down Their Own Senators Who Are Fighting Reciprocity With Cuba.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—The air of satisfaction that surrounded President Roosevelt today and showed itself in various ways to callers was considered justifiable by those who had read the action of the Republican state convention of Nebraska yesterday in specifically commending the Cuban reciprocity policy of the chief of the Republican party. The beet sugar interests of Nebraska are larger than in any state of the union, and if there was opposition to the course of the administration it would appear there before anywhere else.

An interesting incident of the morning was the call of Senator Millard of Nebraska, one of the boldest of the Republican minority. The president good-naturedly told the Nebraska senator how pleased he was that the Republicans of that state so strongly upheld his course. The president's pleasantry was probably not fully appreciated by his visitor, as the Nebraska convention severely turned down the two senators from that state. Representative Burkitt of Nebraska called on the president later in the day and received the thanks of the chief executive for his friendly attitude in the convention.

Three of the western states most vitally interested in beet sugar have now acted on the reciprocity question. These are Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota. The two former stood by the president outright, while the latter did so in spirit, Senators Gamble and Kittredge preventing a more direct manner of expression. Representative Martin, who spoke in the South Dakota convention in praise of the president's course, was applauded vigorously in all he said. These three states have indorsed Cuban reciprocity, although the five Republican senators representing them are numbered with the opposition.

It is expected by the leaders on both sides in the senate that tomorrow's Republican conference will be final, and that after the adjournment of the conference it will be definitely known whether the Cuban committee will report a bill or not. Some of the reciprocity advocates say they still hope to accomplish something; others admit the prospect is not bright. Friends of beet sugar generally speak in opposition to a reciprocity treaty, and express the opinion that the entire question should be allowed to go over until next session.

The president tonight gave a dinner to about a dozen of the leading Republican senators favorable to Cuban reciprocity and discussed with them ways and means of securing a reduction of the duty on Cuban products in order that the pledges made to Cuba may be redeemed. Among those at the dinner were Senators Allison, Aldrich, Hale, Spooner, Lodge and Platt of Connecticut. Secretary Root also was one of the guests.

The administration will continue unremitting in its endeavors until it accomplishes Cuban reciprocity in some form or other, even if it be necessary to call an extra session of congress.

The intellectual powers of Pope Leo are, for a man of his age, remarkably strong. A beautiful picture of him will be one of the supplements of next Sunday's Gazette.

FEDERAL CLERK COMES TO GRIEF BY SPECULATION

In Debt When He Entered Office Six Years Ago and Took Uncle Sam's Cash.

NEVER ABLE TO CATCH UP

Got His Place from Ex-Attorney General Harmon—Owns Up to a Shortage of $7,600—Government Protected by Bond.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., June 19.—Henry Rechtin, disbursing officer of the department of justice, was arrested today on the charge of misappropriating $7,600 of government funds. He confessed to the shortage. Rechtin is from Cincinnati.

Information received by Attorney General Knox some time ago led to a suspicion that something was wrong with Rechtin's books, and the arrest followed an examination of the books under the direction of Controller of the Currency Tracewell.

Rechtin attributes his trouble to fast living and speculation. Two experts from the comptroller's office were going over his books this morning when he arrived at the office. When he saw them at work he turned pale and then went to the attorney general, to whom he made a full confession. This revealed that the shortage had existed for six years. He had concealed it by borrowing money from friends just before his books were to be examined and returning the money after the examination was over.

He said he came here in 1895 in debt and had borrowed from the government funds to pay these obligations, hoping eventually to make up the shortage and get his accounts straight.

Rechtin came here with Attorney General Harmon under the Cleveland administration and was formerly clerk in one of the Cincinnati courts. He is a bachelor, about 45 years old, and had an income of about $2,500 annually.

CINCINNATI, O., June 19.—Judge Harmon was astounded at the dispatches about Rechtin's arrest and said he could not believe Rechtin guilty. Rechtin had been prominent as a Democratic worker in Hamilton county for many years. He has been a clerk in the mayor's office, probate court, county clerk's office and internal revenue office of this district, and stood high here, as does his family.

PACIFIED BY WHEATON.

Save for Brigandage, General Leaves Northern Philippines in Peace—Reconcentration Defended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Adjt.-Gen. Corbin today made public the last report of Maj.-Gen. Wheaton, prior to that officer's return to the United States for retirement. Gen. Wheaton strongly indorses the policy of reconcentration adopted by Gen. Bell.

"I authorized," says Gen. Wheaton, "the policy and fully approved of the methods by which the insurrection in the provinces of Batangas, Laguna and Tayabas was ended. The humane code of the laws of war, as pursued during the administration of President Lincoln, was followed in all operations against semi-civilized insurgents, who habitually violated every law of war known to civilized nations, and who treated their own people with every barbarity that can be inflicted upon the helpless.

"At this time insurrection has ceased in Luzon and adjacent islands. There is no brigandage or disorder reported in all the island north of Manila. A few small bands of ladrones are in the mountains of southern Tayabas, and there is brigandage in Cavite province which the civil authorities say cannot be coped with by the constabulary. There is now little to prevent continued peaceful conditions throughout the territorial limits of this department, provided a firm and thorough policy of bringing to justice assassins and disturbers of order is followed.

"My service in these islands soon terminating, I wish now to express by highest appreciation of the gallant conduct, the courage and humanity of the troops it has been my honor and good fortune to command."

PHILIPPINES IN HOUSE.

Debate on the Civil Government Bill Opens With One Big Gun on Each Side.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—The opening day of the week's debate on the Philippine government bill in the house was signalized by an important speech by Mr. Cooper of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee on insular affairs. Much of his speech was a general defense of the policy pursued by the administration. He contended that the problem of the Philippines should not be a party question; that both political parties brought on the war with Spain, and the votes of members of both parties ratified the treaty which made the islands American territory.

The most telling portion of his speech was the parallel he drew between the present attitude of the opposition and the attitude of the opposition during and immediately succeeding the civil war.

Mr. Jones of Virginia, ranking member of the minority of the committee, presented the Democratic position, but he yielded the floor after speaking about an hour and will resume tomorrow morning.

The order under which the house is operating provides for night sessions until Wednesday for debate only; but as no one was prepared to speak tonight the order for the session this evening was vacated.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

The president sent to the senate the promotions of Capts. Yates Stirling and William C. Wise to be rear admirals.

The senate committee on immigration has authorized Senator Penrose to favorably report the house immigration restriction bill. Some amendments were made to the portion of the bill pertaining to an educational test for immigrants so as to make it conform to the original senate bill.

Italian Ambassador Des Planches complained at the state department about the publication of findings of the Italian consular court of inquiry, that American sailors were subjected to "revolting indignities" by prison authorities at Venice. Secretary Moody will try to discover the source of the leak.

CHURCH CENTENNIAL.

One Hundredth Anniversary of Congregation Celebrated.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., June 19.—(Special.)—The centennial anniversary of the Long Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta, north of this city, was observed today, about 2,500 persons being present from Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. The services were concluded this evening, when a lecture was delivered by Bell Neff of Oil City, Pa.

The centennial sermon was delivered in the morning by the pastor, the Rev. Peter W. Snyder. During the afternoon several former pastors of the church, who are now quite aged, made addresses, among the number being the Rev. Dr. William Dickson of Canfield, O. He was followed by the Rev. J. N. Swan of this city

LOCAL NEWS OF ALL PITTSBURGH

THREE CITIES, FORTY-FIVE BOROUGHS, TWENTY-SIX TOWNSHIPS, FIFTH IN VOLUME OF BANK CLEARINGS, FOURTH IN RANK AMONG CITIES.

Maggie is Cautious—Maggie Maloney a servant in a family in Oneida street, is reported to have received word that an uncle who died in Westport, Ireland, left her $12,000. She will hold her job until the money arrives.

Hose Carriage Upset—The hose carriage of No. 11 engine company was tipped over last night at 6 o'clock at Carson and South Eleventh streets while responding to an alarm. The men were scattered over the street, but none was seriously injured.

Big Lot of Typhoid Fever—Thirty-two cases of typhoid fever were reported to the Pittsburgh bureau of health yesterday, seven being from the Thirty-second ward. The balance are scattered over the city. Four cases of scarlet fever were also reported.

Lads in a Cutting Scrape—Matthew Benson, 11 years of age, son of a Munhall saloonkeeper, was cut on the arm several times yesterday by a boy named Joseph Doski, 13 years of age. A charge of assault and battery has been lodged against Doski.

Water Street Fire—The three story building, No. 49 Water street, owned by Thomas Murray and occupied by James Harrison, was on fire last night about 7 o'clock. The building was filled with rags and old paper. The loss is less than $1,000.

Hot Water Tank Burst—A large steel tank filled with boiling water burst at noon yesterday in the plant of the West Braddock laundry, and half a hundred girls had narrow escapes from injury or death. The damage to the plant will amount to $500.

Many Want Promotion—The commencement exercises of the Fifth Avenue High school will take place in the Carnegie music hall next Thursday night. Examinations are now in order in all the high schools. There are about 1,200 candidates for promotions.

Will Test Sunday Law—Fifteen storekeepers of Carnegie met yesterday and decided to keep open next Sunday, despite the orders of Burgess E. G. Husler. Chief of Police Foster informed them that he would arrest every one of them if they do not obey the order.

Sheraden Inquest Postponed—The inquest into the deaths of the 28 victims of the Sheraden disaster on May 12 was to have commenced yesterday, but Coroner Mcgeary indefinitely postponed it because there are yet many of the injured, who are wanted as witnesses, still in the hospitals.

Passavant Needs More Room—Improvements to Passavant hospital to cost about $8,000 will give 25 additional rooms and provide for the enlargement of the kitchen. A building for the 20 nurses is sadly needed, and at the next meeting of the board the matter of building one will be considered.

Linn Identified O'Donnell—Charles O'Donnell, arrested for having stolen $185 from J. M. Linn of Swissvale two years ago, was identified by Linn yesterday at the Central police station. O'Donnell will be arraigned for a hearing before Magistrate McKenna next Tuesday. He was committed to jail.

Got a Terrible Shock—J. T. Hart of Seddon avenue, North Braddock, employed in the experimental department of the Westinghouse Electric Company, East Pittsburgh, received the full force of 2,000 volts electricity yesterday. His hands were badly burned, but otherwise he was little injured.

Presbytery Will Decide—The committee appointed by presbytery to settle the dispute which has arisen over the proposed location of a Presbyterian church near Roup and Friendship streets, went over the ground yesterday. It was decided to leave the settlement in the hands of presbytery on Monday.

Killed by Falling Derrick—The boom of a derrick at the head of Balkam street, Allegheny, broke yesterday morning, killing one man and badly injuring another. Francis Fatzis, 26 years of age, of Fort court, was killed, and George Praniss, 39 years of age, of Fort court, was injured. Fatzis' body was taken to the morgue, and the injured man to the Allegheny General hospital.

Contract for New Light Plant—The contract for the erection of the Keystone Electric Light and Power Company plant on Verona street, Braddock, will be let next week and work is to be started as soon after as possible. The company has been granted franchises by the councils of Braddock, Rankin and North Braddock, and several other boroughs are expected to do likewise.

Price of Gas Reduced—The Philadelphia Company has voluntarily reduced the price of natural gas furnished the city from 15 cents to 10 cents a thousand feet. This latter price is to prevail until November 1. Controller John B. Larkin was dumfounded when he received the notice, as the company has the contract at 15 cents. The gas is furnished at Herron Hill pumping station.

May Be Dr. Bedford's Bones—A few human bones were found yesterday near the head of South Twelfth street and are thought to be those of Dr. Nathaniel Bedford. Dr. Bedford was buried somewhere in that locality about 1820. The monument placed over his remains was overturned nine years later and nothing positive is known of what became of the remains. The monument was placed in Trinity graveyard several months ago.

Birmingham School Board—The Birmingham sub-district school board, Twenty-eighth ward, organized last night by electing Ebenezer Oliver president; Andrew Hanenstein, secretary, and John W. Patch, treasurer. The board elected Louis G. Knoepp, a former member of their body, to fill the unexpired term of W. N. Crawford, who lately moved out of the district. Miss M. E. Hare was re-elected principal, and all the old corps of teachers were retained.

Houses Painted Red—Vandals made their appearance in Ben Avon Wednesday night and damaged two residences by throwing red paint on them. The home of George H. Alexander of Alexander, Baker & Co., in Church avenue, which was recently painted white, suffered the most. The paint was thrown over the porch posts, the front of the house and the chairs on the porch. The residence of John McNaught, the borough assessor, in the same avenue, was similarly treated.

Taylor's Little Game Stopped—John Taylor of No. 1407 Wylie avenue was sent to the workhouse for 90 days yesterday by Magistrate McKenna for having swindled photograph supply dealers. Taylor represented himself as a porter, went to these dealers and bought films and had them charged to well-known citizens of Pittsburgh. He would take the films to another store, and stating that he had bought them at that place, and that they were too small, would have money returned. He had been working this game for several weeks.

New Land Company—Prompted by the remarkable success of the lot sale at Trafford City a number of Pittsburgh, Turtle Creek and Wilmerding men have organized a new real estate company and have purchased considerable ground in the vicinity of the new Westinghouse town, which they will plot and place on the market. Nearly 300 acres have so far been purchased and options are held on as much more by the company at North Pitcairn. The new company is headed by William Taylor, formerly borough engineer of Turtle Creek. A charter will be applied for within a short time.

Delicious recipes for warm weather deserts in each package of Grape-Nuts

UP IN MINNESOTA

The Women Know How.

Food, and good food, is the right kind of foundation to build good health on. A Minnesota woman writes: "I thought I would like to tell you of the good Grape-Nuts has done for me.

"Last winter I got sick and kept getting weaker and weaker. I could not eat anything but some crackers and a little cup of beef tea for every meal, then I was put on Grape-Nuts and used it with some cream for breakfast. My stomach got strong gradually and before I had used three packages my digestion was so good that I could eat any kind of food, even cabbage, pastry, etc., and I notice that my memory is very much better than it used to be.

"On the 5th of July I weighed 102 pounds and two months later, after using Grape-Nuts, I weighed 122 pounds and was able to do my house work.

"This is a good, honest statement of facts about Grape-Nuts and you can publish my name if you like." Mrs. E. Fredrickson, Center City, Minn.

Nebraska Falls Into Line.

With a platform in which special indorsement is given the Philippine policy and the president's stand for Cuban reciprocity, the state Republican convention of Nebraska yesterday joined the procession of states that have approved the administration of President Roosevelt. The Nebraska Republicans in their firm stand for Cuban reciprocity present another striking illustration of the difference between the views of the people and the stand taken by their representatives in congress. The senators from Nebraska are well-known beet sugar obstructionists in their attitude on the reciprocity question, unmindful evidently of the fact that their constituents are loyal defenders of the effort on the part of the administration to have the nation's pledges to Cuba carried out. This is by no means the only case of flagrant misrepresentation on the part of members of congress. The Nebraska Republicans should send their senators a deeply underlined copy of the state platform as a reminder of what the state thinks about their attitude on the Cuban question.

Another interesting feature of the Nebraska platform is the ringing tribute paid to the American soldier. The Nebraskans evidently have no sympathy with the traducers of our army in the Philippines, for the platform says:

> The American soldier needs no apology. His record is one of loyalty, bravery and generosity toward a treacherous and cruel foe. In battle, in victory and defeat, he has been the pride of his countrymen and challenges the admiration of the world. To criticise him is unjust, to denounce him is cowardly, to deprive him of the honor won is cruel.

This is the kind of bluff patriotism that counts for something when the country needs defenders either at home or on the battlefield. The Nebraska Republicans seem to be of the right stripe, and if their state ticket is as worthy in character as their platform is American in spirit there ought to be no trouble about carrying it to victory at the polls next fall.

Settling a Vexed Question.

Dispatches from Rome indicate that the pope, on the advice of a committee of cardinals who examined into the American propositions concerning the friars and their property in the Philippine Islands, will accede to the plan of the United States government. The proposition includes the removal of the friars from the archipelago and the purchase of the lands held by them. This arrangement ought to be satisfactory all around, and it is pleasant to note that such is the case, with the possible exception of the friars, who will have to pack up and leave. "The friars must go!" has been the slogan of the Filipino people for many years. The arrangement should suit them, therefore. And since the United States government has become convinced that their removal will be for the good of the natives, the Roman Catholic church authorities should be glad that the United States is willing to deal liberally with them in the matter of compensation. This government should be pleased that its proposition commends itself to the vatican, thereby facilitating the solution of a problem which presented difficulties not a few.

Medding Busybodies.

President Roosevelt has been made the especial victim of the gossiping marplots since his occupancy of the White House. We doubt whether any president in recent years has had his personal and family affairs so constantly paraded before the public in a spirit of carping criticism. The Booker Washington incident was a notable instance of this sort of annoying impertinence by people who have some sort of foolish idea that when a man becomes president he surrenders all right to individual or independent action. It has been the same only in a less degree with respect to the sayings and doings of the president's family. People have undertaken to regulate the conduct of the Roosevelt children and indicate the line of family government with as much assurance as if the whole subject was one in which the public had first claim.

In inviting Gen. Leonard Wood to be his guest at the White House the president has again stirred up these would-be sticklers for presidential form and they are cackling in chorus about what they term the unusual proceeding. If the president sees fit to have his long-time friend and war comrade spend a few days as his private guest certainly it is nobody's business, least of all of the self-appointed guardians of the president's private and public actions. At any rate, this is the view a majority of the American public will take of the matter, and from our acquaintance with the chief executive under other and like circumstances we doubt not this is also his private opinion of the present criticisms of the Wood visit.

Hill as a Democratic Moses.

The Tilden club dinner in New York last night, while it partook largely of the character of an inquest on the corpse of the national Democratic party, introduced David Bennett Hill as the expectant beneficiary of a Democracy reunited over the grave of buried hopes. The chief figures at the feast or wake were Stephen Grover Cleveland and Mr. Hill, and not the least interesting part of the proceedings was the manner in which the sage of Wolfert's roost threw bouquets at "the distinguished citizen of New Jersey, the only living ex-president of the United States," and "that other distinguished Democrat, who hails from the great west, our honored standard bearer in the last two presidential elections—that able and eloquent Democratic orator, Mr. Bryan of Nebraska." It may be said of Mr. Cleveland's address that it was of the dignified and scholarly type that one would expect from a retired statesman who lives in the shadow of the walls of Princeton, who sadly surveys the Democratic wreck and who, seeing its completeness, professes to love his retirement so well that he will refuse to be tempted away from it for more than a day at a time. Of Hill's it may be said that it was the address of the wide-awake, ambitious politician, carefully avoiding those Democratic differences that are incarnate in the persons of "the distinguished citizen of New Jersey," who was present, and "that other distinguished Democrat who hails from the great west," who was not present, and carefully and painstakingly mayshaling for Democratic consideration those principles on which Democrats are assumed to not disagree. The matter and the manner of it stamp Mr. Hill as ambitious to unite the Democratic factions to the end that he may become the political heir of the Jerseyite and the Nebraskan.

The points of Democratic agreement stated by Mr. Hill make rather conspicuous the points of disagreement which he did not state, but as it was an occasion for brethren to eat, drink and hear in harmony, he could not have decently rehearsed them. It is very amusing, though, to find him discovering that there is real agreement among Democrats on the question of money, and that they "all stand together where Jackson, Benton and Tilden stood, in favor of hard money as opposed to an irredeemable paper currency." The declaration is really funny, and it is even funnier that it was taken seriously instead of being received with laughter. When one considers the difference between the hard moneyism of Grover Cleveland and the hard moneyism of William Jennings Bryan, the assertion of the joint agreement of their antagonistic schools with Jackson, Benton and Tilden must be considered as something in the nature of a joke on the dead and gone Democratic trio mentioned by Mr. Hill. But if the Tilden Democrats who gave the banquet can accept it as consolation in affliction instead of a burst of fun it would be cruel to deprive them of the solace. Mr. Cleveland, however, must have felt queer under the surface, and doubtless "that other distinguished Democrat" who ignored his invitation to be present because he was not invited to speak, will smile when he reads it. If Mr. Hill can unite the Democracy on such assurance of unity of sentiment of all living with three distinguished dead Democrats he is entitled to that leadership for which he is making a play.

Reform at a Gretna Green.

Cumberland, Md., has long enjoyed the distinction of being a Gretna Green for Pennsylvania lovers, fully one thousand couples from this state, it is estimated, being married there each year. This extensive matrimonial business has aroused greed, as well as competition, and the prospective grooms have been made the victims of conspiracy and extortion. The evil has grown to such proportions that the ministerial association of Cumberland has started a reform movement, the persons against whom it is directed being brakemen, train boys and hackmen, who are accused of working in the interests of a certain minister and dividing the spoils. The groom is "held up" for ten dollars, of which, it is said, three go to the clergyman, two to the brakeman, two to the hackman, two to the trainboy and the remaining dollar pays for the marriage license.

It is an old saying that "all the world loves a lover," but exception must be made in the cases of the Cumberland extortioners, who love the lover only for what they can get out of him. The ministers of that town who have not been getting their share of the business may be suspected of having a personal interest in their efforts to bring about reform, but nevertheless they are deserving of support in their plans to make the course of love run smoother. It is bad enough when the lover is worried by fears of an irate parent in hot pursuit, but when to his fears are added the espionage of train employes and the rapacity of hackmen, his position becomes decidedly unpleasant. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials have promised their co-operation in suppressing this "marriage fee evil," as it has been termed, and the relief cannot come too soon for the fond elopers. After all, however, it would be much better for all lovers to pursue the good, old-fashioned method of marriage at home and among friends, instead of running off to some Gretna Green to be guyed by strangers and fleeced by the unscrupulous.

Resourceful New York.

If it is bizarre Chicago is apt to be its originator, if spectacular, you may set it down as a New York creation. Self-advertisement is one of Manhattan's favorite foibles. Given a suggestion that may have been born in the brain of some utilitarian or conceived to meet a general public or aesthetic purpose New York will work it over into a big scheme to boom that city. Washington has for some time had in operation a special trolley service for strangers visiting that city, attended by a lecturer with a megaphone, who pointed out the various places of interest in the capital. New York has gone Washington one better and established a coaching service for sightseers in Gotham. A megaphone lecturer is provided, who, according to our New York correspondent, is a genius in his way and thoroughly en rapport with the New York idea of "We own the earth, everybody else occupies the position of tenant by grace." This coach may be hired by the hour by anxious out-of-town people from Cohoes or Schenectady at $1 50 an hour, with this sort of megaphone lecture thrown in along with the sights:

> The large white building on your left is the home of Mrs. William Astor, the leader of New York society. Her husband's great-grandfather came here to engage in the fur business some years ago and owing to his shrewd business methods soon accumulated a fortune which has placed his descendants beyond the reach of want. Yonder is the home of Clarence Mackay, the telegraph man. His father was a miner, a successful one; his mother was a washerwoman and is now the best-dressed woman in Paris. The son married a member of a poor, but antique New York family, one of the proudest of the proud.

Isn't that refreshingly New Yorkese? Is there any other town on the globe where this sort of personal advertising would be tolerated for a minute? And yet New York thrives and flourishes like a green bay tree on just this kind of publicity. The coach lecturer and the megaphone are but new versions of Manhattan's pride in the personal and family meanderings of her "400." That the concreteness of the system of giving it voice will strike outsiders as funny goes without saying, but nothing that New York may ever do to advertise herself will provoke surprise again. We are used to her by this time.

Another evidence that the Roosevelt family get there every time is found in the presentation of a prize to young Teddy for punctuality in attendance upon school.

Revenge Is Sweet.

From the Kansas City Journal.

The residents in a West Side apartment house are chuckling over the discomfiture of a certain woman who, with her husband, resides in the house. He has an ancestor, which his wife plays off with discretion and assiduity, for she is ambitious to consort with the rich and powerful. In fact, they are both troubled with acute social aspirations. Across the corridor from these "climbers" lives a family of Germans—kindly, well-to-do people, but not smart nor smartly inclined. The overtures of this family have been haughtily rejected by the socially aspiring pair, and hints about calling have been coldly received and not reciprocated.

The other day the ambitious woman gave an afternoon reception. A boy, brave in a bebuttoned livery, was engaged to waft the visitors from the elevator into the right door, and no pains or money was spared to have every detail correct.

Whether the German neighbors caught wind of what was about to befall, or whether it came about by accident, is unknown, but the fact is that they chose the afternoon of the reception to cook every loud smelling dish known to the dietary of the Vaterland. A weird odor of boiling turnips hovered about the hallway, in conjunction with suggestions of beer soup and more than suggestions of frying onions. As the auspicious moment approached a smell of boiling sauerkraut that had been imminent all day became so real that you could cut it with a knife or put your arm around it, and, floating around the corridor, joined forces with various other evil perfumes and invaded the flower decked apartments of the aspiring lady with the concentrated bloom of a delicatessen.

Since that day strained relations have existed between the dwellers in the two flats, but the neighbors grin whenever they think of it.

Always on the Spot.

From the New York Tribune.

At a little dinner the other night the statement was made that the colored race had longer memories than white folk. Mark Twain, who was present, agreed with the remark, and to prove it told the following:

"Some years ago, when south, I met an old colored man who claimed to have known George Washington. I asked him if he was to the boat when Gen. Washington crossed the Delaware, and he instantly replied: 'Lor,' massa, I steered dat boat.'

"'Well,' said I, 'do you remember when George took the hack at the cherry tree?'

"He looked worried for a minute, and then, with a beaming smile, said:

"'Why, suah, massa, I dun drove dat hack myself.'"

AN AERIAL MIDWAY PLAISANCE IN PROSPECT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square
NEW YORK, June 18.

If the plans of Frederick Thompson are carried out New York will have a "Midway Plaisance" 100 feet above Broadway. This Mr. Thompson wishes to obtain a 10-year lease of the roof of one of the great department store edifices in course of erection in Herald square, and he is willing to pay a rental of $20,000 a year. His idea is original. He purposes to make the roof, which is a block wide facing Broadway and an ordinary block long, although it extends only two-thirds of the way down the block on Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets, respectively, a regular pleasure ground. There will be a vaudeville show, swings, merry-go-rounds, perhaps a "loop-the-loop," fortune-tellers, music of various kinds, and a collection of side shows that will rival any Barnum ever thought of. Innocuous refreshments will be sold. Ice cream, fruits, peanuts, cakes and candies will all be on sale, and many toys distinctive of the "Midway" will be obtainable at low prices. To get up to all this joy the patron will first pay 10 cents. When once he is on the roof he may stroll about at will, taking part in any of the amusements offered on paying entrance fees. He may have his photograph taken, get weighed, try the strength of his lungs, see how hard he can punch, and, in fact, suffer and do everything that is to be found at Coney Island, except take a dip in the sea. This is all "in the air" today, in a different sense from what it will be if Mr. Thompson gets his lease; but it is talked about seriously, and it remains only with the owners of the building to say whether the aerial "Midway" shall come into existence or not. It is not likely that this kind of thing will appeal to the ordinary habitues of roof gardens, but it is thought that it will be a fine thing for shoppers and their children who are tired of pushing their way through crowded storerooms and want a breath of fresh air. The general opinion is that the scheme will go through. If it does it will establish a new order of amusement on the roof tops of this city of skyscrapers.

Loop-the-Loop Ruins a Child's Nerves.

It is not only to fly bicyclist that there is danger in the "loop-the-loop." Even the common, ordinary "loop-the-loop" of Coney Island claims its victims and yawns for more. Marian Childers, a child-actress well known to Pittsburghers, who was with Virginia Harned in "Alice of Old Vincennes" last season, is dangerously ill at her home in this city. Marian could not resist the seductions of the squirming platform, and, when the "barker" megaphoned to the world the joys of "looping the loop," the child insisted on trying it. She suffered such a shock to her nervous system, according to reports from her bedside, that her parents will enter suit for damages against the owners of the contrivance. Without presuming to anticipate the decision of the court, it may be suggested that one is not obliged to go on the "loop-the-loop," and that the paying of a fee of 10 cents for the privilege may be accepted as prima facie evidence that the victim took the risk of her own free will.

Moral: "Mind Your Own Business."

Talking about the riots at Paterson, N. J., yesterday, a New Yorker remarked that it was generally possible for one to keep out of the trouble zone at such a time. Said he: "Business took me to Paterson yesterday at the time that all this row was going on. I got off the train at the depot in Market street and visited several places, staying in the city for nearly two hours. Then I boarded my train and came back to New York without seeing a rioter, policeman, striker or silk mill proprietor the whole time. It is true that I noticed turbulent mobs down side streets here and there, and if I had cared to walk a few blocks I could have been in the middle of them; but I didn't do it. It was no concern of mine, and I did not interfere." "And the moral of all this is?" I asked. "To mind your own business," was the pithy response.

Power of a Woman's Society.

A smart hansom cab stood at the curb in Broadway uptown this afternoon. The driver was as smart-looking as the rest of the turn-out, and as he sat in his little coop at the back of his cab he watched the passing throng on the sidewalk and paid no attention to his horse. That animal, being of an inquiring nature, was poking his nose into a push-cart of cherries immediately in front of him. The Italian owner of the push-cart pushed the horse's nose away gently but firmly. This awoke the cabman and aroused his ire at the same time. He whipped his horse and tried his hardest to make it run down the push-cart, cherries, Italian and all. A first-class ruction was in operation immediately, as the "fare," an alert-looking business man, stepped into the cab. The driver was so mad at the Italian by this time that he was determined to smash up the fruit stand entirely and his horse was rearing up over the Italian in an alarming way. Just then a handsomely-dressed woman came on the scene. She addressed the cabman with a few sharp words that hit the bull's-eye with a crack. Without a word he swung his horse around and drove away, but not before the lady had his number. She was a member of one of those women's societies for the correction of street abuses, of which New York has at least a dozen, and if that cabman does not lose his license it will be because he can prove an exceptionally good previous character.

Thurston as Severe as Devery.

Although Devery is no longer trial commissioner at police headquarters some of his drastic methods on the bench remain. Commissioner Thurston makes the policemen on trial shiver in their shoes as he looks them over. It has been declared that Commissioner Partridge is "too easy." No one says that about Thurston. He even ventured to rebuke Capt. Chapman of the flowing black whiskers this morning on account of lack of discipline in his precinct. Thurston has the habit that the president of the United States had when he was a police commissioner in New York, of going about the city and seeing things for himself. The policemen never can be sure of how much he knows, and excuses offered at trials are as cautious as they used to be in the Devery regime. And it may be remarked that in nine cases out of 10 they are just as ineffective.

Brooklyn to Have a Zoo.

Brooklyn is unhappy because it has no "zoo." Pittsburghers will remember how little was life worth living before the elephant and baby bear took up their quarters near Panther hollow and the splendid menagerie in Highland park was in the future. Same way in Brooklyn. There is soon to be a "zoo" there, however, space in Prospect park having been already allotted with buildings to be utilized for housing the animals. The menagerie is beginning modestly enough, the collection of animals to date consisting of a pair of zebus, a pair of Brazilian sheep, a pair of Dorset sheep and a pair of fallow deer.

Conviction Under Child Labor Law.

Sweat shop methods must not be applied to children in New York city nowadays, if the authorities find it out. A push-cart ice peddler in the Ghetto was today fined $50 for overworking his 13-year-old son. He was caught making the child—a stunted, pallid little chap—carry 50 pounds of ice up five flights of stairs, and, immediately on his coming down, starting him up with a similar load to the fifth floor again. This was the first conviction under the new child labor law and the punishment was light compared with what it might be under the statute. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was the complainant in the case and it has its agents keeping vigilant watch for other offenses of the kind.

Subway Litigation Decided.

Lawyers are interested in a decision handed down today by Judge Hazel in the United States district court in connection with the rapid transit tunnel. It dismissed with costs suits brought by the Underground railroad of New York and the Rapid Transit Underground railway of New York against the Rapid Transit Subway Construction Company, the city of New York and the rapid transit commissioners, the allegation being that the plaintiffs had leasehold rights in the route of the subway. The plaintiff companies had absorbed other companies which were said to have leased a route and the rights to construct a tunnel. On this ground the companies insisted that the rapid transit commissioners and others building the present subway were usurpers and must get out. The case has been dragging through the courts for some time and lawyers have enjoyed it on account of the fine technical points involved. Judge Hazel severed the knot Alexander fashion with one stroke today but wound up his dismissal of the suit with the remark that, as all the parties to it are admittedly residents of New York, the federal courts have no jurisdiction.

Morgan Popular as a Fighter.

When the report reached Wall street that J. P. Morgan was ill in Europe, the anxiety was more of a personal nature than concerned with the probable effect of the alleged illness on the market. Mr. Morgan is popular in the street, notwithstanding his brusque manner and generally belligerent attitude. He is a fighter "from way back," and a fighter is admired by the army of fighters which makes up what is known generally as "Wall street." A member of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. is quoted as saying today: "If those who circulate this rumor could see the vigorous English used by Mr. Morgan in his cables this morning on this particular subject they would hardly have the audacity to father such contemptible stories."

Cleaning Up After Tammany.

The work of cleaning up after Tammany continues in the municipal departments. The number of dockmasters in the city has been reduced from 27 to 20, the purpose being to cut off needless salaries. It was shown by the books that in five new wharfage districts created by the Tammany dock board in the last administration the total collection of wharfage for the year was less than $1,500, while the combined salaries of the five officials whose business it was to collect it amounted to $7,500. They got $1,500 a year each. Now they are out of a job and Tammany weeps outside the fence.

One Copper Popular With Children.

Capt. Miles O'Reilly gave the children in his precinct, on the lower East Side, a "treat" last night. There were fruits, cakes, candies, music and an informal talk by the captain. He is the hero of his precinct, and the youngsters can hardly be kept out of the police station when they think the captain is there. He called on Mayor Low at city hall today. It is not usual for police captains to meet the chief executive of the city in this informal way, but Capt. O'Reilly is a law unto himself. He is the first captain to make a real, unequivocal hit simply by doing his sworn duty.

Bessie Bonehill Has Only a Tumor.

The cheering news reached Broadway today that Bessie Bonehill, the actress, is not dying from cancer in London, as has been believed for several weeks. Her daughter, Miss Marion Seeley, has received a cable dispatch saying that Miss Bonehill has a tumor and not a cancer, and that she is recovering so rapidly that she expects to return to this country and spend the summer at her country seat, Deer Hill farm, Long Island. If this is true it will be as welcome in Pittsburgh as anywhere.

Platt's Summer Home Open.

Senator Platt may go to his seashore home as soon as he likes. The Oriental hotel at Manhattan Beach threw open its doors today, and although the rainy weather interfered somewhat with the arrangements it did not prevent the booking of a number of guests. The senator has lived at the Oriental for many summers. He will arrive next week, it is understood, if he can get away from Washington.

A Member of French Mission Sails.

Robert de Billy, a member of the mission sent to the unveiling of the Rochambeau statue at Washington by President Loubet, and himself a member of the cabinet of M. Delcasse, minister of foreign affairs, sailed for France today on La Touraine.

Aldermen at the Bat.

The Brooklyn aldermen and the Manhattan aldermen played what they called a game of baseball in Brooklyn yesterday. T. P. Sullivan said you could hardly tell it from a high ball, but Mr. Sullivan and his associates from Manhattan have to admit that Brooklyn won the game by a score of 20 to 7. They say, however, that it was all due to the fact that Alderman Bridges played with the Brooklyns and made the Manhattens laugh so much they couldn't catch their breath—or the ball either.

Morgan's Summer Home Open.

Senator Platt may go to his seashore home as soon as he likes. The Oriental hotel at Manhattan Beach threw open its doors today, and although the rainy weather interfered somewhat with the arrangements it did not prevent the booking of a number of guests. The senator has lived at the Oriental for many summers. He will arrive next week, it is understood, if he can get away from Washington.

A Member of French Mission Sails.

Aldermen at the Bat.

The Brooklyn aldermen and the Manhattan aldermen played what they called a game of baseball in Brooklyn yesterday. T. P. Sullivan said you could hardly tell it from a high ball, but Mr. Sullivan and his associates from Manhattan have to admit that Brooklyn won the game by a score of 20 to 7. They say, however, that it was all due to the fact that Alderman Bridges played with the Brooklyns and made the Manhattens laugh so much they couldn't catch their breath—or the ball either.

THE MAN UP A TREE

From a High Viewpoint.

THE German emperor read an essay at Nuremburg the other day. But he had often lectured before.

King Edward's indisposition gave those London insurance companies something of a chill.

The Plum Creek Presbyterian church, which is 100 years old, is also a peach.

Spain hastens to announce that she will send a minister to Cuba, before all the eligible places are taken up.

King Edward has a good deal of reign coming to him yet.

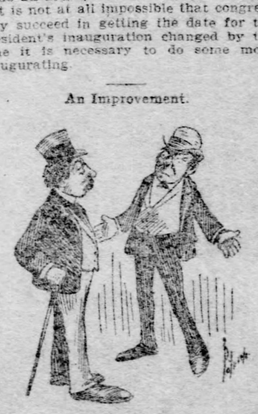
The Japanese pronounce the word kimono "kim-o-no," with the stress on the first syllable, but a pretty girl looks well in one, no matter how you pronounce it.

Of course there is no likelihood of trouble in the married life of young Mr. and Mrs. Parsons, but if any should arise, how nice it will be to have an able pacificator like Senator Hanna in the family!

Oleomargarine makers are not going to pay 10 cents a pound for the privilege of coloring oleomargarine when they can supply a little bucket of paint with each pound and let every oleo consumer become an artist.

It is not at all impossible that congress may succeed in getting the date for the president's inauguration changed by the time it is necessary to do some more inaugurating.

An Improvement.



"The Spanish government has decided to appoint a minister to the Cuban republic," remarked Mr. Westpark.

"Well, I'd much rather see Spain send a minister to Cuba than send a governor-general," added Mr. Northside.

Subjects for Graduates.

Here are a few more suggestions for subjects of sweet girl graduates' essays:

"Custard pies and how to make them."

"Plans and specifications for the construction of strawberry short cake."

"The secret of concocting light and flaky pie crust."

"The proper method of preparing chickens for the table."

"How to broil bacon to make your mouth water."

"The distillation of surpassing coffee."

"Beefsteak and the broiling of the same."

The written work should be accompanied by samples of the manufactured article, not for publication, but as a guarantee that the essayist is a master of her subject.

No Need to Starve.

"Crop prospects in Europe are poor," remarked Mr. Squirrel Hill to Mr. Murray Hill. "There has been so much snow and so much unseasonably cold and wet weather throughout France and Austria-Hungary, that the yield of grain will be very small."

"Oh, well," replied Mr. Murray Hill, cheerfully, "the Europeans can order food from the United States. Uncle Sam will continue to do business at the same old stand."

POINT BREEZE.

"Let Us Rejoice."

From the Armstrong Republican.

If the 10,000 pounds of dynamite that was in the "push" at the station Monday evening had exploded there would have been a lot of Kittanning angels hovering around—well, there or thereabouts. Think of 10,000 pounds cutting loose at one time! There would not have been a house standing in the upper end of town. But don't worry at what might have been. Let us rejoice at what is.

THE STATE PRESS.

The nominations made at Harrisburg last week seem to have thrown the Democratic editors of the state into a terrible rage.—Titusville World.

The rise in the temperature will urge more potently than any presidential pressure the enactment of necessary national and international legislation to the end that congress may adjourn.—Altoona Tribune.

The harmony and enthusiasm in states that have held Republican conventions this year shows how visionary the Democratic hopes of controlling the next house are.—Erie Dispatch.

Judge Pennypacker grows in favor and becomes stronger as a candidate for governor as the people learn to know him better. He will be elected by a large majority.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

In view of London's manner of celebrating peace, we might give a new proof of international friendship and sympathy for suffering by loading the Dixie with bromides and forcing her to enter and start her on a new mission of mercy.—Lancaster Morning News.

Perhaps it is wrong to charge the Caribbean eruptions with having raised the bills of Pennsylvania. It may have been the Harrisburg convention. It appears to have had some elevating specialties.—Philadelphia Press.

The Pittsburgh bureau of health has issued a pronunciamento declaring that all citizens and their families must submit to vaccination. That is the most effective remedy that has yet been devised against the scourge of smallpox. Its enforcement in centers of population is a public duty.—Altoona Morning Tribune.

Gov. Stone was displeased with the action of some of the Allegheny delegates to the recent Republican convention, and not being able to get at the delegates themselves he is having their relatives discharged from office. The governor seems determined to add to his laurels as long as his official life lasts.—Philadelphia Press.

The president regards the enactment of a law providing for Cuban reciprocity as a duty and with him the conviction that a certain action is his duty outweighs all other considerations. His manly exertion of his convictions cannot but command the respect of all true Americans whether they take issue with his reasoning or not. In the words of the late respected Jerry Rusk, "He seen his duty and he done it." The responsibility now rests with congress.—Reading Times and Dispatch.

If Gen. Robert E. Lee's daughter was actuated by motives of public policy in seating herself in the colored section of a "Jim Crow" car, and thus precipitating a dispute over that obnoxious law, she is a brave and patriotic woman. Her social position makes her, probably, the most influential woman in Virginia in a matter of this kind, and if she decides to ignore race distinctions, so far as the absurd tyrannical "Jim Crow" law is concerned, her action will go far toward effecting its repeal.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The people of Pennsylvania will feel inclined to doubt the theory advanced by Col. Demming of the United States geological survey, that the seismic disturbances in the West Indies have boosted the entire state from two to 24 inches. There may have been such an elevation of the earth's surface, but how it could take place in so short time and no one have an inkling of it, is what will puzzle the average reader who is not familiar with the workings of the geologists.—Scranton Republican.

PERSONALS

Pittsburgh is soon to have another big workshop added to the many large industrial plants already located in this district. With this end in view Joseph Misco, a mechanical engineer and steel metallurgist of New York, who organized the Misco Ice Company of that city, is in Pittsburgh for the purpose of selecting a suitable site on which to erect a large plant where cutlery will be made by a new process recently invented by Mr. Misco. When seen at the Hotel Duquesne last night Mr. Misco said the new concern is to be capitalized at $5,000,000, and will be owned entirely by Pittsburgh and New York capitalists. The new plant is to employ 800 men, he says. The forging and welding of the steel is to be done in a vacuum, and the grinding and polishing of the cutlery is to be done on wheels, the temperature of which will be lower than the temperature of the article to be ground or polished. The low temperature of the wheels will be secured by the ice-making process which Mr. Misco has now in operation in New York. Mr. Misco said the new company will be a Pittsburgh concern entirely, and the majority of the board of directors will be Pittsburghers.

Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, and party last night passed through Pittsburgh over the Pennsylvania railroad on their way east from Notre Dame, Ind. The special cars Loretto and Lucania were attached to the third section of No. 4. The Rev. Father Morgan M. Sheedy of Altoona, Pa.; the Rev. Father Ward of this city, and Mrs. Mock and Miss Horn left the Schwab party at the Union station. The train had orders to stop at Cresson to let Mr. Schwab's father, Jacob Schwab, and his family off. Mr. Schwab and wife were to go on to New York.

The train dispatchers' convention, which has been in session at the Monongahela house for a few days, last night concluded its business. Yesterday the delegates visited the Carnegie steel plants and the Westinghouse plants at Homestead, East Pittsburgh and Braddock. The delegates left Pittsburgh at 9 a. m., over the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad in a special train in charge of Superintendent J. B. Yohe.

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter Brown and their two daughters, Mary and Lucille Brown of Beaver, Pa., left yesterday for a year's residence in Berlin, Germany, where the young women will take lessons in music. They were accompanied by W. S. Morrison and wife and Mrs. H. L. McChesney of Beaver and Mrs. James Paul of Sewickley.

Fourteen cars loaded with immigrants arrived in Pittsburgh last evening over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. There were almost 500 people on the train, most of them bound for points west of Pittsburgh. Not more than 100 stopped in Pittsburgh. They were mostly Germans, Poles, Slavs and Italians.

Col. J. M. Schoonmaker, vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, and family, last night went to Spring Lake, N. J., for the summer. The party traveled in Col. Schoonmaker's private car No. 99, which was attached to the first section of No. 4 on the Pennsylvania railroad.

J. Denniston Lyon and family last night went out over the Pennsylvania railroad to Watchhill, R. I., to be gone for the summer.

Francis J. Torrance went to Atlantic City last night over the Pennsylvania. He will return home on Wednesday.

Julian L. Yale, an official of the Illinois Steel Company, is at the Hotel Lincoln. He is in Pittsburgh on business.

FREE EXCURSION TO BUTLER

TOMORROW, SATURDAY.

This busy, bustling city will double in population within the next 60 days. Every train out of Pittsburgh bears hundreds of mechanics and tradesmen, who are drawn to this prosperous town by the great industrial activity following the location of The Standard Steel Car Works, the greatest of its kind in the world, employing 5,000 men. In the very heart of this prosperous city is located the

CAVANAGH PLAN OF 252 LOTS

Beautifully adapted to business and residence purposes. Within a block of the great Main street of Butler. 5,000 skilled mechanics, clerks and managers will be looking for homes in Butler within the next sixty days. Today there is not a vacant house in Butler. In order to relieve the overcrowded condition of the city the great car company has already contracted for the erection of several hundred houses. Thousands will be required to meet the demand. The Greatest Opportunity Ever Offered Investors in Real Estate. These lots are not isolated or in the suburbs, but lie in the very heart of Butler, and the adjoining property is all built up. West Wayne Street forming part of the plot will be the main thoroughfare between the Works and the City and will shortly be traversed by the Butler Street Car Lines.

THIS IS NO FAKE MUSHROOM TOWN, ESTABLISHED IN THE STUBBLEFIELDS, SUCH AS YOU HAVE SEEN ADVERTISED BEFORE.

The plot is perfectly level and will require no grading. It is sewered and perfectly drained. The County Seat of Butler County. Recognized as the wealthiest City of its size in the Country. Six Banks and Trust Companies, one of which has deposits of nearly two millions of dollars.

Manufacturing Plants:

Standard Steel Car Co.,
Standard Plate Glass Co.,
Oil Well Supply Mfg. Co.,
Egan Boiler Works,
Evans & Templeton Foundry and Machine Co.,
Butler Engine Works,
Butler Silk Mill,
and numerous others.

Another large Forge and Iron Works will shortly be located at Butler.

Remarkably Choice Lots for Residence and Business will go in this great sale at $500.00 and up.

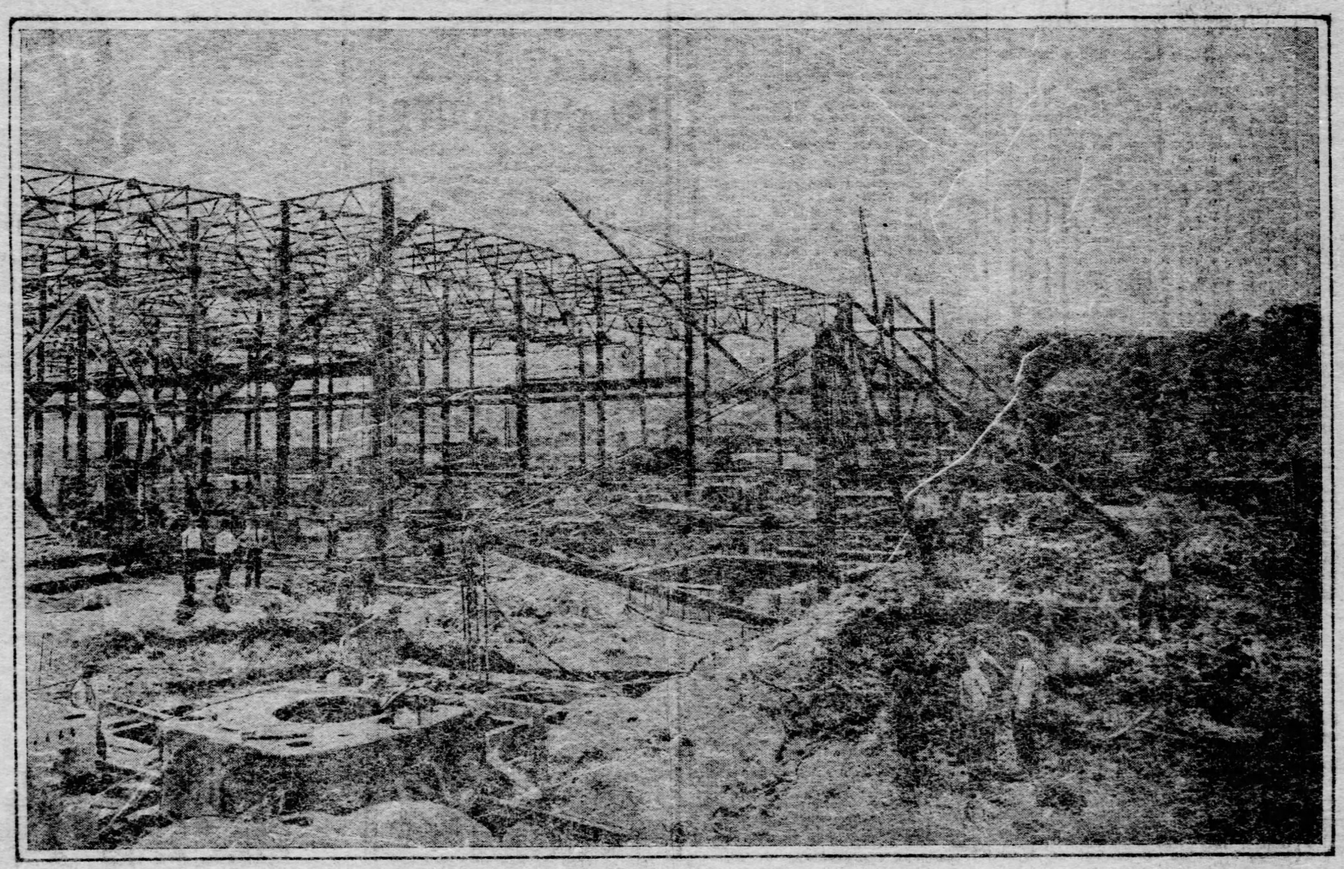
NEW CASTLE EXCURSION WILL LEAVE AT 7:20 A. M.

Stores of all kinds are wanted in this booming city to supply the wants of the thousands of new people locating there.

If you never have purchased a lot before, now is your time. You will get double the price paid for it in less than sixty days.

The remarkable advance in Butler real estate is the best possible evidence as to the advisability of investors getting in and securing a lot in the CAVANAGH PLAN when it goes on the market on SATURDAY, JUNE 21st.

Do a little thinking on this proposition, then you will realize how a man with a small amount of money can secure and hold an investment which will eventually turn to thousands. You won't have to wait like you invariably would in the average new town, as this place is already a city, established years ago, with all modern and up-to-date improvements.



CONSTRUCTING THE GREAT STEEL CAR WORKS.

Here is the Greatest Real Estate Opportunity

That can ever occur. Investors who would like to own a piece of the choicest property there is in the city of Butler, make sure to be on hand on the opening day. SATURDAY, JUNE 21st.

The remarkable opening sale of the CAVANAGH PLAN OF LOTS at Butler would not be exciting the interest it is if such opportunities to make money occurred even occasionally during one's lifetime.

Real estate in other industrial communities has not and cannot show the ratio of increase in value that the CAVANAGH PLAN OF LOTS will, yet when you stop to consider it will not be wholly dependent upon one industry.

You will be surprised at the pace progress has set in this model city when you see one army of men after another and team after team at work carrying out the wonderful plans of the Standard Steel Car Works, the largest in the world, now in course of erection.

Think of it!—5,000 working men without homes! Such will be the condition of affairs at Butler unless thousands of houses are built at once. This is the greatest opportunity for investors and builders known in the TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Now is the time to purchase lots in the CAVANAGH PLAN. It is the early investor who makes the money. BE SURE TO BE ON HAND ON THE OPENING DAY, SATURDAY, JUNE 21st.

Just think of this! Think what it means for the investor who goes in and buys choice lots as level as a floor. The man who buys a number of lots will get rich. A man who buys only one lot will earn from $1,000 to $2,000 in a very short time. When you consider the amount of money being expended in this section within the next year building mammoth work shops and mills, you will realize why there is such a great reason for the ground floor prices at which this property is being sold.

When you go out and witness the facts with your own eyes you will not be long in taking advantage of this opportunity to make money.

When experienced investors get information that such a proposition is afloat they won't rest until they get to the property. Now is undoubtedly your time to make a TEN STRIKE. Come on day of sale, SATURDAY, JUNE 21st.

Terms: $100.00 DOWN Balance $5.00 PER WEEK

OR A LIBERAL DISCOUNT WILL BE GIVEN FOR CASH.

NO TAXES OR INTEREST UNTIL DEED IS DELIVERED. THE TITLE TO ALL LOTS SOLD ON THIS PLAN WILL BE GUARANTEED BY THE PUBLIC TRUST CO.

Railroad Fare will be paid to any one purchasing a lot, living at no greater distance than 100 miles from Butler.
Railroad Fare of any one attending this sale and purchasing a lot whether going on excursion or not will be paid.

Train Will Leave P. & W. Depot, Allegheny, Rain or Shine, at 9:30 A. M. Saturday, June 21st, 1902. Be Sure to be on Hand.

Manager Fred Clarke of the champion Pirates was guilty of a bit of rowdy ball playing yesterday which brought down upon his head the wrath of the grandstand spectators, who hooted and howled at him as he left the field, calling him "spiker," "rowdy" and other pet names familiar to baseball fans. It was the closing act of a fiercely contested game, in which Patsy Donovan's Cardinals secured their first victory of the season from the champions, the final score being 3 to 2.

When the last inning of the rather exciting game was reached the Cardinals were one run to the good, and the Pirates went in with a determination to at least tie the score. It looked very much as if they would accomplish their object or perhaps snatch a victory out of defeat. Leach, who was first up, drove a grounder at Kruger, which Gom Paul was unable to handle and it counted for a lift. Zimmer tried to sacrifice, but on his tap the pitcher fielded Tommy out at second, Chief reaching first. Tannehill then singled to left, and, on Davis' out at first, the runners moved up a base.

Where the Rowdy Act Took Place.

This was the state of affairs when the Pirate leader appeared at bat. Two men were out, two on the bases nearest home and a single meant a victory for the champions. Manager Fred looked determined, but the best he could do was to drive a hot grounder to Second Baseman Farrell, who fielded the ball to Brashear at first in plenty of time for the final put-out. Clarke, however tried to turn a trick which is common to baseball, that of stepping on the baseman's foot in order to make him drop the ball. The trick failed, but Clarke's spikes caught Brashear's foot and the Cardinals' first baseman jumped about in pain for a few minutes.

This was the act which incensed the grandstand patrons, as well as those on the bleachers back of first base. Manager Fred discovered by their expression that ball playing of that kind is not appreciated in this city and should be cut out. It was a very foolish act on Clarke's part, even though it is considered good baseball by the players of the game. The Pirates' leader, had he been studying the temper of the crowd, could easily have seen that there was a decided sympathy for the visitors, which was largely due to the personal popularity here of Patsy Donovan.

Crowd Rooted for the Cardinals.

It is a fact that all through the game the crowd kept rooting for the Cardinals, and in the third inning when they scored three runs and jumped into the lead, the crowd broke into hearty cheers. Not only that, every good play made by the Cardinals was cheered wildly and the crowd had a lot of cheering to do, as Donovan's team certainly put up a finished article of baseball and richly deserved their victory. In view of these facts Manager Clarke's act was a very thoughtless one and the 2,500 spectators showed they would prefer a clean-cut defeat to a victory brought about by questionable baseball methods.

Could the champions have cut out the third inning of yesterday's game they would have scored an easy victory, but the third was a part of the game, and an ugly part of it at that. There were two hands out in that inning when that villain of a Patsy Donovan started trouble, and before the third hand was out Donovan and his companions had helped themselves to three runs, which were enough to win the game. These three runs were the result of four as nice singles as were ever shoved over the grass and two of as ugly errors as one would want to look at. The errors were made by Clarke and Leach, the singles by Donovan, Smoot, Barclay and Kruger, and the runs by Donovan, Smoot and Barclay.

Bunched the Hits and Errors.

That was what would be called a bunching of hits and errors, and it was a pity, because outside of that one inning Jesse Tannehill pitched gilt-edge ball. Donovan presented as his battery the famous O'Neil brothers, Michael Joyce, the pitcher, and John Joseph, the catcher. This pair of brothers know a thing or two about the art of the game and their work yesterday was first class in every particular. Michael Joyce the pitcher, was steady at all times, and his curves were both clever and puzzling. The O'Neil brothers were given excellent support, particularly by Smoot in middle field, who gathered in some very difficult fly balls. The star play, however was made by First Baseman Brashear, when he went into the air in the eighth inning and pulled down Hartman's wild throw, which, if it had got away, would have cost the Cardinals the game. NOTES OF THE GAME.

Tannehill was guilty of a bit of carelessness in the sixth inning when he failed to cover first on M. O'Neil's grounder to Brashear. Kitty gathered the ball in neatly and tried to beat the runner to the bag but O'Neil was too speedy for him.

Hans Wagner made a pretty catch in the seventh inning when he ran half way out to the left field bleachers and grabbed Barclay's fly. Honus was going with the ball and the catch was exceedingly difficult.

Manager Clarke contributed one of the very pretty plays of the game when he went almost to the left field bleachers in the fifth inning after Kruger's fly. It looked as though the ball would go for three bases, but Freddie stuck up his left hand and pulled the ball down.

Tommy Leach's two-bagger in the fifth inning was a funny affair. Donovan, Smoot and Farrell went after the "Texas leaguer," but none of them could reach it, and while they stood looking at each other Tommy, by fast sprinting, reached second.

Lefty Davis was guilty of an ugly error in the fourth inning when he dropped Barclay's fly, after having the ball in both hands. The error was nothing but a lefty looked cheap as he marched in to the bench.

That was a tough game for Tannehill to lose, as the little Pirate pitched the kind of ball that will win 60 out of every 100 games. Jesse also pitched ball, but fifty looked cheap as he marched in to the bench.

The calldown was a deserved one in that case.

ALLEGHENY SENDS OUT 133 BRIGHT GRADUATES

High School Graduation Exercises at the Alvin Theater Last Night. Panic Narrowly Averted.

The commencement exercises of the Allegheny High school in the Alvin theater last night had an unlooked for feature that fortunately passed off without bad results. The building was packed, both stage and auditorium being taxed to their capacity. The exercises had progressed smoothly until Rabbi J. Leonard Levy of the Eighth avenue temple, who was the speaker of the evening, was fairly started in his address. Then, without any warning, the lights went out. For an instant there was danger of a panic, but Dr. Levy was equal to the occasion and his words brought those who had started to their feet back to their seats.

When assured that there was no danger the audience rather enjoyed the novelty of the proceedings. Candles were procured as soon as possible and in their dim light the exercises were continued as planned. The trouble was caused by a breakdown of the engines of the theater.

The Allegheny High school had 133 graduates this year. The normal department furnished 10 with a five-years' course and 13 with a four-years' course. Lucy Stone McCarty was the honor pupil, having a grade of over 88 per cent for the entire course. The academical department had 46 graduates with a four-years' course. The honor graduates, with a percentage above 88 for the full course, were Ralph Munden, Bertha Elida Lotz, Mildred Miller, Elsie Wuesthoff, Paul Coleman, Luella Lincoln Kennedy and Verna Maud Madtes. Coleman won a Western university scholarship and Miss Kennedy carried off a scholarship at the Pennsylvania College for Women. She is a daughter of R. A. Kennedy, a well-known attorney, and is the second member of her family to be an honor pupil of the High school, her sister, Miss Lillie A. Kennedy, having won that place three years ago.

The commercial department had 64 graduates with a two-years' course. Matilda Ittel was graduated with great honor, having made a grade above 93 per cent for the entire course. The honor graduates with a grade above 88 per cent were William C. Reuter, Daniel Binder and Aima V. Johnson.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by the Rev. Ell Miller of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church, Allegheny. The address of the evening was made by Dr. J. Leonard Levy, rabbi of the Temple Rodeph Shalom, Eighth street. He said he looked upon the great audience as an expression of admiration for the triumph of mind over matter, as was a testimony of respect for education and for its tremendous potentiality as a factor in the upbuilding and uplifting of the human family.

Diplomas were presented to the following graduates:

Normal, 5 years—Stella A. Eber, Anna Frances, Harriet B. Hinnau, Mary Florence Glenn, Myrtle R. McCullough, Lucile Margaret Smith, Phebe Elsenbeis, Mollie Garfield Eggers, Dorothy M. Helms, Ola B. Owens.

There are two events for women golfers scheduled for the local courses this afternoon. On the Allegheny Country club links at Sewickley heights, there will be an 18-hole handicap contest for a cup offered by Mrs. B. F. Jones, while on the Highland course one of the regular monthly competitions for the L. C. Phipps cup will be decided. This must be won twice and was taken last month by Miss Grace Kelly.

Next Friday the competition at Highland will be for the cup offered by Mrs. Charles Taylor, which is taken by the first contestant scoring six points, three counting for first, two for second, and one for third. Miss Elkins won last Friday, and must win this time to stand much of a chance for the cup, as she sails for Europe before the third competition.

Mr. Hiddle Haworth has offered a cup for "bogey" competition, under handicaps, by Edgeworth club members. It will be played for next week, the day to be announced.

HORSES RACED IN DEEP MUD AT SHEEPSHEAD

Early Morning Rain Spoiled the Program, Still Sport Was Exciting.

HATASOO HAD WALK-OVER

Took the Swift Stables in a Gallop. Herbert Also Reveled in the Sloppy Going and Won in a Warming-Up Canter.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 19.—The rain of the early morning ruined what promised to be a good day's sport at Sheepshead Bay. With Yankee and Old England scratched, Hatasoo had only to gallop to win the Swift stakes at seven-eighths of a mile. Herbert, with 126 pounds up, reveled in the sloppy going, and eased up, won the third race by three lengths. Summaries:

First race, 6 furlongs, on main track, selling—Graden, 100, Cochran, 7 to 1 and 6 to 5, won; Lamesole, 100, Redfern, 1 to 3 and out, second; Military, 103, O'Connor, 20 to 1 and 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:14 2-5. The Dancer, Peterpoof, Penny Chop Rye and Silver Plush also ran.

O'Connor Rode the Winner.

Second race, fillies, 2-year-old maidens, last 5 furlongs of futurity course—Gold Money, 110, O'Connor, 11 to 5 and even, won; Birch Broom, 110, Shaw, 6 to 5 and 5 to 2, second; Lady Josephine, 110, Odom, 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:02 3-5. Rounding Beauty, Bonne, Sweet Jane, Queen Bodin, Credulity, Sweet Marjorie, Stamping Ground, Maintain, Sadie O., Witful, Madame DuBarry, Sparkle Eshon, Fair Lass and Erora also ran.

Third race, handicap, 1¼ miles—Herbert, 108, Smith, 15 to 20 and out, won; Monarka, 116, J. Martin, 3 to 1 and 7 to 10, second; Sadie S., Waldo, 4 to 1 and 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:53 3-5. Vindictor also ran.

Fourth race, the Swift stakes for 3-year-olds, futurity course straight—Hatasoo, 116, O'Connor, 1 to 8 and out, won; Bonnot, 111, Woolery, 12 to 1 and 4 to 5, second; Trump, 111, D. O'Connor, 10 to 1 and 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:28. Only three starters.

Trump added starter.

Fifth race, selling, 6 furlongs on main track—Malden, 108, Shaw, 8 to 1 and 3 to 1, won; Rouse, 104, Cochran, 4 to 1 and 7 to 5, second; Helawaka, 94, Waldo, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 3-5. Midnight Chimes, Neither One, Choate, Basuto and Satire also ran.

Sixth race, 2-year-olds, last 5½ furlongs of futurity course—Tesoro, 117, Martin, 7 to 2 and 6 to 5, won; Alsopo, 114, Wonderly, 6 to 5 and 2 to 5, won; Carbuncle, 115, Odom, 8 to 1 and 3 to 2, second; Emmuse, 106, Shaw, 8 to 1 and 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:47 4-5. Grail and Fair Night also ran.

Sheepshead Bay Entries for Today.

First race, selling, 6 furlongs, main track—Schuls, 109, Batyan, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Eve, 106, Stidham, 3 to 1 and even, second; Bisarth, 105, Past, May Sedition, Sweet Clover, Flirtimer, 101; Lady Helywood, 100; Ohio Girl, 96.

Second race, 1⅛ miles—Squire Quinne, 112, Bonnus, Reynoras, Juvenalis, Waterton, 112; Rosenfeld, Cupidor, Moroton, The Guinea, Sir Keiston, The Beggar, White Crest, Prospector, 109; Anna Darling, Dactyl, Lady Appleby, Lady Iona, Adelaide Prince, 107.

JOCKEY'S SERIOUS BLUNDER.

Was an Easy Winner, but Eased Horse Up and Lost the Race.

CHICAGO, June 19.—While two lengths in the lead, 100 yards from the wire in the Austin Stakes at Harlem today, Jockey Helgeson, apparently believing that victory was his, eased up his mount, Ethel Wheat, and lost a $5,000 purse. Hermencia came with an unexpected rush and won. Coburn brought Hermencia to the front with such suddenness that Hermencia was a length in the lead before Helgeson realized what was taking place. Hermencia won easily by two lengths. Ethel Wheat beat Louisville by three lengths for the place. Summaries:

First race, 5½ furlongs—Horatius, 108, Donnelly, 15 to 1, won; Gallant Smith, 103, Perine, 20 to 1, second; John C. King, 103, Dean, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 2-5. Impetuous, Darkish, King Hammon, North Pole, Dupage, The Counselor also ran.

AMERICAN DERBY UNCERTAIN EVENT

IT WILL BE A CASE OF THE EAST AGAINST THE WEST.

East Furnishes the Three Betting Choices in Heno, Pentecost and Arsenal—Prospects Are for a Good Track—List of Probable Starters.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, June 19.—The fifteenth American derby, which will be run at Washington Park Club track Saturday afternoon, is regarded as the most uncertain since the world's fair derby of 1903.

The race appears to be the east against the west. The east furnishes the three betting choices in Heno, Pentecost and Arsenal, and it is only on the theory that western colts may be in better condition as a result of avoiding the trip across the country that westerners figure a good chance for a colt from this section to win. Such a theory has back of it the history of other derbies in which no eastern colt has ever been successful, with the exception of Strathmeath in 1891, who was on the ground weeks before the derby was run.

Prospect for Good Track.

Although the local tracks have been muddy or heavy nearly all this spring there is now a fairly good prospect of a good track and day for the derby. However, most of those announced to start in the event can run on either a heavy or a fast track, so that the complexion of the race will not be changed much by weather conditions.

Railroads are announcing lower rates to see the derby than ever before and the chances are there will be an enormous crowd, probably 60,000 people and quite likely even larger than that.

The horses likely to start, with their weights, jockeys and owners, are as follows:

Arsenal, 4 to 1, 122, O'Connor, A. Featherstone; Belles Commoner, 8 to 1, 122, Knight, J. C. Respess; Heno, 2 to 1, 122, Bullman, C. H. Mackay; Hermit, 10 to 1, 122, McCue, H. M. Ziegler; Lord Quex, 20 to 1, 122, J. W. Woods, A. C. Hildreth; Lucien Appleby, 15 to 1, 122, Ikaus, s., Kirkenruth, S. C. Hildreth; Otis, 12 to 1, 127, Singleton, B. Schreiber; Pentecost, 4 to 1, 127, Redfern, J. E. Madden; Wyeth, 10 to 1, 122, Lyne, J. A. Drake.

There is a possibility that the following may start, but they are doubtful:

Abe Frank, 20 to 1, 125, Coburn, G. C. Bennett; Aladdin, 20 to 1, 122, Helgeson, G. C. Bennett; McChesney, 10 to 1, 122, Caywood, S. C. Hildreth; Prowl, 20 to 1, 122, Davisson, J. C. Steele; South Trimble, 30 to 1, 122, ——, Baker & Gentry.

All the horses in the above list are here with the exception of South Trimble. Arsenal and Pentecost arrived from the east today in good condition. They are in charge of Julius Bauer, the regular trainer for A. Featherstone. J. E. Madden's action in entrusting his colt to the charge of a man who has a rival colt running for the same rich prize is regarded as unique in the history of the derby.

There Is One Disappointment.

One disappointment came today. That was in the announced withdrawal of Cruzados, who was slightly cut yesterday in the accident in the derby trial at Harlem, which resulted in McChesney failing. Although Cruzados is not badly hurt the injury will be sufficient to keep him from going to the post on Saturday. This is a disappointment more because of the sentiment attaching to the "Lucky" Baldwin colors, which have dashed first in four American derbies, than because of any real chance that shrewd turfmen considered Cruzados to have to win the big race.

As to McChesney, there is a possibility that he may yet go to the post, although this is doubtful. McChesney was the colt chiefly relied on to carry the banner of the west against the banner of the east in the race, and there has been sorrow among the race track partisans since yesterday's accident. McChesney was reported to be in fairly good condition today and not as sore as it was feared he would be after the shaking up he got in yesterday's fall.

M'CONNELL COMES TODAY

Boston Boy Wants to Be in Fine Shape for Wilson—Pittsburgher Is Riding Very Fast.

Charles McConnell, the Bay State champion, who will ride in the 30-mile motor-paced race at the Colosseum track, Allegheny, next Monday night, will arrive in Pittsburgh some time today. A telegram was received from him by the management yesterday stating that he and his manager had left Boston yesterday. In his message McConnell said that he would want at least two days on the track to train for the Monday night race, but that he is in fine form and will be able to do his best riding against the Pittsburgh boy. He will bring with him two powerful motors and two teams of pacemakers.

Wilson continued his training at the track yesterday. He has been working nearly every day for the past two or three weeks and his riding behind the big motors will prove a surprise to some of his Pittsburgh friends who have felt that his race with Hall on the opening night of the track was not a fair test of his riding, as he had not had sufficient experience in following the pace. Wilson says that he will be able to do much better than he did on that occasion and was very anxious that another match be made for him so that he would have an opportunity to show what he could do after a little training. He rode a 10-mile work-out yesterday afternoon, and although he was not exerting himself the watch showed that the miles were being passed at the rate of 1:30 and 1:29 for the ten miles.

While it is not likely that any records will be broken the patrons of the Colosseum can feel assured that the race on Monday night will be interesting at all stages. The men are in the same class and both want the race, so that it will be a hot contest from the crack of the starter's pistol to the end.

The entries for the amateur events on Monday night, the half mile handicap and the two-miles mile handicap, are coming in fast. The entries close at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Will Control Franklin Sports.

Wiley, president; James B. Borland, secretary; Chester Lamberton, treasurer; H. E. Horney, general manager. The association will have charge of all sports at their park, including the city league baseball games, football, etc. The affairs of the association are in good condition and the season promises to be a successful one.

Beaver College Field Meet.

BEAVER, PA., June 19.—(Special.)—The Beaver college annual field meet here today was an interesting event. The basketball game between the Beaver college and Riverview teams resulted in a score of 10 to 4 in favor of Beaver college. In the 220-yard dash, John Snyder won over N. Mechlen. Time, 25 seconds. High hump, A. Mechlen, 5 feet, 2 inches. In the 110-yard hurdle race, Clifton won over Mechlen. Time, 17 seconds.

Luts to Fight an Unknown.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., June 19.—(Special.)—Lawrence Lutz, the Beaver Falls boxer, who is making his headquarters here, has signed articles to fight 10 rounds with an unknown from Youngstown on the night of July 5. The bout will take place in this vicinity. Lutz has considerable of a reputation in the Beaver valley.

THE PITTSBURGH COLLEGE TEAM ENDS SEASON

Wound Up With a Clever Victory Over the Strong Iron City Club.

THE TEAM'S GOOD RECORD

Played Nineteen Games, Lost Seven and Tied One, Which Is the Best Record Ever Made for the College on the Bluff.

Yesterday afternoon the Pittsburgh college team played its last game of the season and won it. The Iron City A. C., which was lately reorganized after a series of defeats, braced up and gave the students all they could do to bat out a victory. The game was devoid of brilliant plays. The collegians took the lead in the beginning and held it until the end.

During the first five innings Killgallen was hit freely; eight runs, including two homers, were secured off his delivery, and it was deemed necessary to relieve him. Gapen took his place, and shut out Iron City during the remainder of the game without a hit or a run.

During the season Pittsburgh college has played 19 games; of these it lost 7, tied 1, and won 11, making the best record in its baseball history. The score:

Clarion Won from Indians.

CLARION, PA., June 19.—(Special.)—The ball game played in Clarion this season resulted in a victory for Clarion Normal school over Indiana State Normals strong team by a score of 6 to 4. Indiana started out like winners, but Wilson settled down after the first inning and Indiana batters were unable to tell a straight ball from a curve. William Brown of Clarion made a home run in the seventh, it being one of the features of the game. The contest was witnessed by a big crowd and enthusiasm by the local rooters ran high. This is Indiana's fourth defeat this season. Score:

The Indians Won the Game.

Two teams, made up of the employes of the Carnegie and Sheraden yard men of the Panhandle railroad, played an exciting game at Carnegie yesterday, which resulted in a victory for the McConnaughy Indians, or Carnegie yardmen, by a score of 10 to 9. The game was exciting from start to finish. Turney, captain of the Turney wreck team, played a fine game, as did Given for the Indians. Every man on the Indian team batted like an oldtimer, and pitched and caught excellent game, keeping the hits well scattered. Score:

Indians	2	0	3	0	2	0	2	0	1	—10
Wrecks	1	1	0	4	0	1	0	2	0	—9

MONESSEN TEAM BEATEN.

W. V. U. Nine Won Its Last Game of the Season at Morgantown.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., June 19.—(Special.)—West Virginia university won its last game of the season today, defeating Monessen by a score of 10 to 3. Buck Washer's fine pitching also opportune hitting enabled the team to win an easy victory from the Monessen Athletic club. Perkins pitched a good game, but as in yesterday's game was poorly supported. Score:

STAVING RESIGNS.

Beneficiary of Northside Ripping Withdraws From Allegheny Common Council.

Henry P. Staving last night resigned as a member of Allegheny common council from the Third ward. He has been appointed market clerk to succeed John Frances, who was ripped out of office by Recorder Murphy.

The ordinances relating to the franchises asked for by the Pennsylvania company were laid over until those of a similar nature which were amended in the select branch on Wednesday are brought to the common branch. Messrs. Trimpble and Henricks argued that the railroad company is planning to get certain ordinances through councils that will be beneficial to the company alone, and then to refuse to accept those of benefit to the city.

There was a fight on the ordinances fixing the salaries of the city detectives at $1,500 per year, but it passed finally by a vote of 25 to 3. Messrs. Trimble, Lowrie and McHenry voting no.

An ordinance was introduced fixing salaries as follows: Wharf master, $1,200 per year; coal passers and assistant firemen, $2 75 per day; janitor of the bureau of health, $65 per month. A resolution was presented requesting the Pittsburgh Railways Company to give better service east of Federal street between the hours of 6 and 7:30 a. m., and 5 and 7:30 p. m.

At Traction Parks Sunday

there'll be another grand change of bill. Rocereto's great concert band, Anna Berger, famous cornetist and Mlle. Zeno—balloon ascension—at Calhoun. Chicago Newsboys' band—the hit of the season—at Oakwood. Boston Ladies' Symphony orchestra at Southern—all week. Third Regiment band and Adelaide Boutelle, operatic mezzo-soprano, at Kennywood. Tonight—Rocereto at Kennywood, Ladies' band at Oakwood and Newsboys at Southern. Always free.

YALE AND HARVARD CREWS' EASY WORK

OARSMEN WERE NOT CALLED ON TO EXERT THEMSELVES.

Yale Crews Practiced Starts—One Change in Blue Freshmen Eight—Harvard 'Varsity Crew Is Now Settled Upon—Change in Time of Races.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GALES FERRY, June 19.—Yale's freshmen and 'varsity eights devoted today to practicing starts. Half a dozen times this morning and the same number of times this evening the regulars and 1905 oarsmen stood alongside and splashed in a quarter-mile race. Twice the freshmen got the jump on the 'varsity by rowing higher stroke, but the regulars overhauled them before the close of the race.

For the first time since the Yale oarsmen came here a change was made in the make-up of Yale's crew, Halpin, a substitute, being given No. 5 in the freshmen eight. Ferguson was moved from No. 5 to No. 3 and Raymond was dropped. Head Coach Hooker said this evening that this change was likely to be permanent.

An Easy Day for the Four.

The Yale 'varsity four did practically nothing today. It will be sent either tomorrow or Saturday for its last time row before the race. Formal announcement was made today by the Yale and Harvard coaches of the change to 2 o'clock for the freshmen eight and 'varsity four race, and to 4 o'clock for the 'varsity eight race next Thursday.

After several shifts in the order of the boat during the week Harvard's 'varsity crew has settled down to what undoubtedly will be its final order, barring accidents. As was expected the stiff work which has been handed out to the men since they have taken up their quarters at Red Top led to a lay-off today, and the men were allowed an extra hour's sleep this morning, and there was no forenoon rowing.

The afternoon's work of the crew was in short stretches at strokes varying from 28 to 32. On the whole the boat traveled more smoothly than it did in the time row yesterday and seems to have spaced fairly well.

Freshmen Rowed Against Tide.

The freshmen crew was sent over the two-mile course up stream in the afternoon with the tide and against the wind. The time was a trifle over 12 minutes. Capt. Tew, who has been getting around into condition rapidly under the watchful eye of Dr. Jouett, was in the bow at No. 2 again today and will probably be able to do the work the rest of the season.

Coxswain Jackson left Red Top tonight so as to be at Harvard for the class day celebrations, and Wadleigh, the '99 and '00 coxswain, will probably steer the boat in Jackson's absence. None of the oarsmen or substitutes will be allowed to go up for class day, although there are a good many seniors on the squad who will thus have to miss their own class day festivities.

ROWED IN THE RAIN.

Crews at Poughkeepsie Had Tough Work—Cornell's Fast Work Sends Its Stock Up.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 19.—All the Pennsylvania crews went out in a driving rain this morning. They rowed hard along the course, the freshmen and fours for two miles and a half and the 'varsity for three. The coach seemed to be driving the 'varsity to work out their endurance.

The Georgetown crew appeared on the river shortly before 11 o'clock, every man looking in the best of condition. In this respect no crew on the river excels Georgetown. They rowed about four miles this morning, Dempsey coaching them in starts and spurts.

Courtney's announcement that his 'varsity crew made the four miles last night in 29.20 under adverse conditions has made Cornell more than ever a favorite in the betting. The Cornell 'varsity did not go out this morning, but Courtney said his freshmen and 'varsity four rowed short stretches.

Both Wisconsin eights went out early. They rowed down stream against the tide for three miles and then came back at a hot pace, the freshmen rowing half a mile ahead. The 'varsity covered five miles in all and O'Dea gave all of his attention to this boat.

There is no betting of any moment tonight because the followers of the crews have not yet arrived in sufficient numbers. What betting sentiment there is fixes upon Cornell as favorite for the 'varsity against the field, although the supporters of Cornell, while willing to back their crew to win, are demanding odds for the field, but will bet even money on Cornell against any other single crew. Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Columbia will bet against each other on even terms, while Georgetown and Syracuse expect to receive odds in any commission.

For the freshmen race Wisconsin seems to be the favorite, but Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania and Syracuse are all so good that it is very hard to choose among them.

"Our crew has been very much overrated," said Courtney, the Cornell coach, tonight. "I cannot understand the reason, for I do not think we have as fast a crew as last year. Still, it is a good one; just an average Cornell crew, and, while I am proud of it, I am not by any means certain that I will win."

They Played for Cash.

The Waldorfs beat the Metropolitans last night for a side bet of $25. Although the Metropolitans were strengthened by Demoss of Homestead and Calhoun of Rochester, they couldn't hit Hartmus, who only allowed the Metropolitans four hits. The score:

										R.	H.	E.
Waldorfs	2	3	1	0	0	2	0	4	—12	14	0
Metropolitans	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	—2	4	3

Batteries—Waldorfs, C. Hartmus and Lynch. Metropolitans, Crawford and Wilson.

"YELLOW BOOK" WAS A REGULAR HOLD-UP GAME

More Policemen Tell How They Had to Stand and Deliver.

WARRANTS COURT ACTION

Testimony Obtained to Prove That Recorder Brown, Director Leslie and Supt. McAleese Intimidated Men in the City's Employ.

The councilmanic committee investigating the workings of the "Yellow Book" held another session yesterday and secured enough testimony to warrant the beginning of court proceedings for the removal of Recorder J. O. Brown, Director A. H. Leslie of the department of public safety and Superintendent John McAleese of the bureau of police for violations of the city charter. It was shown that Superintendent McAleese had inferentially threatened policemen with dismissal and that the name of J. O. Brown had been used, by his permission, to induce the men to sign the book.

The committee is nearly through with its work, although before a report is made it is proposed to summon all the inspectors. Superintendent John McAleese and Assistant Superintendent William Wilson. The committee had before it yesterday Inspector Fred Wills of the First district, Capt. Grant Smith of the East End district, Lieut. Robert Holmes of No. 6 station, Patrolmen Jesse Masters, John Clark, Charles Grimes, M. E. McCarthy, Harry Willis, Emil Frank, Owen Woods, John Sweeney, Michael Rogan, Albert Testers and Sergeant Adolph Metz.

Witnesses May Be Disciplined.

It will probably be necessary for the committee to discipline one or two witnesses. Emboldened by Director A. H. Leslie, who set the city charter, the city code and everything else at defiance, several patrolmen yesterday refused to answer questions that were put to them. It is argued that such refusal, under the new charter, would be sufficient ground for Controller John B. Larkin to refuse to issue warrants to them.

John Clark, patrolman from No. 1 station, was among those who refused to answer a question. He admitted that he signed the "yellow book" in May, when Superintendent McAleese told him to do so, but refused to answer when asked, "Did you sign the book voluntarily?" "I have told," said Clark, "all that I intend to." He was allowed to go.

Patrolman Charles Grimes, from No. 1 station, has been a policeman since 1874, and he always signed the book until this time, when he refused to sign it. He said Sergeant Adolph Metz told him the book was there, but that he had not signed and did not expect to.

Sickness Was No Excuse.

Patrolman Jesse Masters, No. 6 station, signed the book in May, and paid the money to the desk sergeant. Lieut. Holmes told Masters that he had better pay at once as Capt. Smith had left orders for all the men to pay in by Wednesday, meaning yesterday. Masters said Officer M. E. McCarthy did not want to pay because he had sickness in his family, but that Lieut. Holmes told him he had better pay. Capt. Smith also told all the men to sign the book, and said that J. O. Brown wanted them to do so.

Officer M. E. McCarthy, No. 6 station, heard Inspector Robert Gray tell the men to sign the yellow book. He said that owing to a death in his family he did not feel able to pay and went to Lieut. Holmes and told him so. The lieutenant told him that he must pay, as the money was going away the next day, and they could not wait on him or any other man.

Henry Willis, patrolman at No. 6 station, had not been working a month when he drew his May pay. He had but $37 50 coming to him, yet paid $9 00. He said he paid it because he wanted to hold his job. He had been on the force before, and had paid the assessments.

Patrolman Emil Frank, No. 6 station, said he had refused to sign, and Capt. Smith had asked him if he were going to. He told him no, and the captain said, "all right," and walked away. When asked what meaning he put on the captain's "all right" he declared, "I knew I was up against it. I don't exactly expect to lose my position, but do not expect the best end." Frank was in uniform and is still a member of the force.

Money Wanted to Pay a Note.

Capt. Smith said he first heard of the book on its last trip in May. He signed the book, and paid the money. He admitted that he told the men the book was there, but denied he urged any of them to sign it. Lieut. Robert Holmes testified that he signed the book, and paid the assessment, and always did so. Holmes testified that Andrew Fulton, when director of public safety, told him to tell the men not to sign the yellow book passed at that time.

Patrolman Owen Woods, No. 1 station, signed the book. He heard McAleese tell the men that J. O. Brown wanted the money with which to pay a note. Patrolman John Sweeney, No. 4 station, heard McAleese tell the men that they had better sign the book. None of the 66 men reporting at No. 4 station signed, however. Patrolman Michael Rogan, No. 1 station, heard Superintendent McAleese tell the men that they had better sign the book, and that he did not care if he did lose his job because he had a farm to go to.

Sergeant Adolph Metz, No. 1 station, who was on the stand during the early part of the investigation, was recalled yesterday. He testified that he had collected some of the money on the yellow book, and that Sergeant Wallace had told him a few days ago to go on with the collecting of the money as Superintendent McAleese had sent a message to that effect to Wallace, who is day sergeant.

Inspector Fred Wills of the First district, testified that he had received the yellow book from Superintendent McAleese and that he gave it to the sergeant at No. 1 station. Wills said that several men signed the book the first day it was there, including Wills, who paid his money to Sergeant Wallace.

Society

MRS. WILLIAM H. DONNER gave a June garden party yesterday afternoon for her three children, Margaret, Robert and Joseph, and their friends. The entertainment was conducted at her home in Morewood avenue, Shadyside, and the lawns and garden were invaded by the host of little people, who reigned supreme during the afternoon. Fifty children and as many ladies were guests of Mrs. Donner from 3 o'clock until 7.

The little people were royally entertained, the hostess being assisted by a number of friends among the young society matrons. Each girl on her arrival was presented with a doll and each boy found a baseball and glove awaiting him, so the girls played "house" and the boys had ball games. A Punch and Judy show was erected on the lawn, there was a grab-bag, and pretty prizes were awarded in the Cinderella contest. During the afternoon sandwiches and lemonade were served on the lawn and at 6 o'clock supper was served the little people in the dining-room, which was decorated in yellow and white, daisies adorning the supper tables and the buffets. While the children were having their supper in the dining-room the ladies were served at small tables on the large porches.

Mr. and Mrs. Donner and their children will spend a portion of July at Atlantic City and will go to Lakewood for August.

Keith—Bissell.

A large, handsome wedding took place last evening in Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, Penn avenue, East End, the bride being Miss Charlotte Douglass Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Horton Keith, and the bridegroom, the Rev. Shelton Bissell of Verona, N. J. The church was filled with guests to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John H. McIlvaine, D. D., rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. D. L. Ferris, associate rector. The church was simply decorated with palms within the chancel.

The bridal party included the bridesmaids, sisters of the bride, Miss Mabel Keith and Miss Katherine Keith. The bride was given away by her father, with whom she entered the church. Her little brother, Samuel Keith, was the page. The best man was a brother of the bridegroom, Arthur H. Bissell of Montclair, N. J. The party was completed by six ushers, Alfred Clair Dickey, J. Hartwell Hillman, Raymond Curtis, Henry Page, George S. Page and W. B. Dickson of New York. The wedding gown worn by the bride was of unusual interest as it was the one worn by the bride's mother at her wedding 30 years ago. It was of white corded silk, entraine. The bodice was cut low with short sleeves and trimmed with lace and tulle. The bridal veil was of tulle and in place of a bouquet the bride carried an ivory-bound prayerbook. The attending maids were prettily gowned in white muslin with ribbon sashes.

After the wedding a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents in Kentucky avenue, East End. Mr. and Mrs. Bissell left last evening for New York. They will be at home after July 15 in Verona, N. J. The Rev. Mr. Bissell was formerly a newspaper man and is a recent graduate of the Yale Divinity school.

Entertaining a Bride-Elect.

Mrs. George R. Waters of Bellefield gave a beautiful luncheon yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Margaretta M. Patterson, whose wedding to Lucius C. Fuller of Chicago will take place next Tuesday evening. Fifty of the personal friends of the hostess and her guest of honor were guests at the luncheon yesterday, at which the honors were shared by Miss Patterson with the out-of-town girls who arrived yesterday morning in Pittsburgh to be bridesmaids at the wedding. They are Miss Whitehead of Chicago, Miss Farrell of Ansonia, Conn., and Miss Holliday of Minneapolis. Mrs. Waters' luncheon was the first of a series of entertainments planned for the bride-elect and her maids, who include besides those named, Miss Florence Howe Brown, the maid of honor, and Miss Grace Taylor, another bridesmaid. Today Mrs. James McFarland will give a small luncheon at the Country club in honor of Miss Patterson.

Roberts—Barton.

In the Second United Presbyterian church in Stockton avenue, Allegheny, occurred the wedding of Miss Olive Louise Roberts and James Lowrie Barton, at noon yesterday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William H. McMillan, D. D., pastor of the church. The bride was attended by a maid of honor, her cousin, Miss Edythe Aikens, Edgewood Park, and the best man was Paul Barton, a brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a gown of white pointe d'esprit over white taffeta and her bouquet consisted of white bride's roses. The maid of honor also wore white and carried a cluster of pink roses. The bride was given away by her uncle, John Roberts of Brunswick, N. J. After a wedding breakfast, served at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Rinehart, Mr. and Mrs. Barton went away on their wedding trip.

Harkness-Hammers.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 18, at 2:30 o'clock, G. W. Harkness of Ardara, Pa., gave his daughter, Eva May Harkness, in marriage to John Francis Hammers of Indiana, Pa. Only the immediate friends of the family were present. After the ceremony a dinner was served. The young people then left for their new home in North Homestead, where they will receive their friends after July 15.

Carlin—Butler.

Miss Anna B. Carlin, youngest daughter of the late Peter Carlin of the West End, and Joseph A. Butler, were married on Wednesday evening, June 18, at 5 o'clock, by the Rev. Father O'Shea, in Shereden. Because of the recent death of a brother of the bride the wedding was very quiet, none but immediate relatives being in attendance. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for a trip to the lakes. Their future home will be in the East End.

Roberts—Blackwood.

Miss Edna Pearl Roberts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson Roberts of Crafton, and the Rev. Irvin Aiken Blackwood, of the Fourth Reformed Presbyterian church, New York, were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Savage street, Crafton. The Rev. Dr. McAllister, pastor of the Eighth Street Reformed Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. R. M. Blackwood of Coraopolis.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Roberts, as maid of honor, and Miss Lizzie Blackwood of Mt. Washington, and Miss Ethel Kirkpatrick of Valencia, Pa., as bridesmaids. Chalmers Blackwood was the best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine, over silk, with trimmings of duchesse lace, and a tulle bridal veil, secured with a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried white roses. Her maid of honor wore white mousseline over pale blue silk, while the bridesmaids wore white mousseline over pink silk, and carried pink carnations. The house was handsomely decorated with palms and flowers, pink and white being the principal colors used. White carnations and pink roses were in the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, pink carnations in the dining room and white carnations and daisies in the reception hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood leave this morning on an extended wedding tour, after which they will go to housekeeping in New York. The bride gave a small and informal dinner Wednesday evening for her attendants, when she presented them with unique gold stickpins. The wedding was to have been a large church affair, but owing to the recent death of Mr. Blackwood's father, the invitations had been recalled.

Patriotic Children's Reception.

The John Hart chapter, Children of the American Revolution, will hold its annual reception at the Twentieth Century club tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At that time the election of officers will take place and the announcement of the national prize will be made. An interesting feature of the occasion will be the story which Mrs. Frank Murdock will tell about the naming of streets in Pittsburgh and of the patriotic men and women whose names they bear. Each member of the chapter is asked to contribute a book at the annual reception to form the nucleus of a library to be sent to a school in the country. The children are also asked to name their favorite revolutionary soldier. Mrs. Sullivan Johnson is president of the John Hart chapter; Miss Florence Reineman is secretary and Miss Rose Marsh is registrar.

Domestic Arts Class Graduates.

Interesting exercises were conducted yesterday afternoon at the training school of the Domestic Arts association in Oakland, the occasion being the graduating exercises of the senior class in the school. The diplomas were presented by the head of the service department of the association, under whose direction the school is conducted, and addresses were made by Dr. J. Leonard Levy on "The Value of Home-Making," and by C. B. Connelly, superintendent of the Manual Training school of the First ward, Allegheny, on "Carine for Homes as a Profession." Other interesting and informal talks were given by members of the board, the exercises also including a discussion on "The Value of the Training Given by the School of Domestic Arts," in which a number of employers told of results secured.

Mrs. Witherow's Tea.

Mrs. William Witherow gave a housewarming party and tea yesterday afternoon, in honor of the opening of her new residence in Sewickley. Tea was served between 3 and 6 o'clock and 150 guests were present from the valley and Pittsburgh. Music was furnished all afternoon and evening by an orchestra, and refreshments were served. The house was handsomely decorated in pink and white, cut flowers being used in abundance.

Those who assisted Mrs. Witherow were the following: Mrs. Howard Hooker, Mrs. Maurice B. Nixon, Mrs. Albert Beymer, Mrs. Humphries Miller, Mrs. George Dean, Mrs. S. R. Horner, Mrs. Joseph A. O'Neil, Mrs. Harry Palmer, Miss Jane McClure, Miss Hester McClure, Miss Jeannette Palmer, Miss Harriett Ray and the Misses Witherow. In the evening Mrs. Witherow entertained her aids and their husbands and friends with a card party.

Wedding Invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford S. Utts have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lulu Mary Utts, and William Charles Walters. The wedding will take place in the East End Presbyterian church, Wilkinsburg, on Thursday evening, June 26, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Walters is connected with the Pittsburgh Stove & Range Company.

Hazelwood Lawn Fete.

A lawn fete will be given this evening by the Hazelwood Presbyterian church on the lawn of J. W. Barker, Second avenue, Hazelwood. There will be a band concert, ice cream, strawberries and cake, and the proceeds will go to the church treasury. The young people of the congregation have charge of the affair.

Married in Youngstown.

A quiet wedding occurred at Youngstown, O., yesterday afternoon, when Dr. Charles Hill, a physician aged 60 years, and Miss Mae Matthews, aged 22, both of Pittsburgh, were married. The couple returned to the city last night.

Notes of Society.

The annual boat excursion of the Allegheny City Epworth League union will be held tomorrow, the steamer Beauty leaving Juniata street, Allegheny, at 1:45 and the Market street wharf at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John M. McDonald and Miss McDonald gave a reception yesterday afternoon at their home in McDonald, Pa., in honor of Mrs. Frank Musgrave Wallace. The hours were from 2 o'clock until 5.

On Monday evening the graduating class of the Allegheny high school will give a series of three plays at the Alvin theater instead of the usual class night exercises. The plays selected are "My Lord in Livery," "A Gentle Jury" and a little French play.

This evening there will be an exhibit of the first year's sewing done by the girls in the domestic arts department in the Second ward schools of Allegheny. The exhibit will be held in the sewing room of the Sherman avenue school from 8 until 10 o'clock.

MUSH MAKES MISERY.

The old theory that mush makes a practical diet has been exploded by modern scientific research, by physicians of great repute, such as Chittendon, of Yale, and men of like scientific fame. It has been proven that mush is in a class with indigestible wheat cakes, black coffee and like dietic crimes. Mush lies in the stomach, a pasty, indigestible mass, fermenting and producing discomfort and indigestion. Such a diet lowers the vitality and leads to serious and often fatal bodily ills. Discard mush and treat your system royally to Toasted Wheat Flakes, sweetened with Malt Honey, which is a toothsome delicacy easily digested and makes strong muscles, mind and nerve. Every package of genuine Toasted Wheat Flakes bears a picture of the Battle Creek Sanitarium.

FOR BABY'S SKIN SCALP AND HAIR

Something for Mothers to Think About

EVERY CHILD born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp, and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz., THE CUTICURA TREATMENT.

Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, gentle anointings with CUTICURA OINTMENT, to instantly allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, to be followed in the severer cases by mild doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT PILLS (see below), to cool and cleanse the blood, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin-tortured infants and children and the comfort of worn-out, worried mothers. A single set costing $1.00 is often sufficient to cure when the best physicians fail.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT PILLS (Chocolate Coated) are prepared to meet the wants of women and children, and are pure, sweet, tasteless, and odorless. They are beyond question the most successful skin and blood purifiers and humour cures yet compounded, and especially appeal to all having the care of children.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold throughout the world. SOAP, 25c. OINTMENT, 50c. PILLS, 25c. British Depôt: 27-28, Charterhouse Sq., London. French Depôt: 5 Rue de la Paix, Paris. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A. "All about the Skin, Scalp, and Hair," free.

HUNDREDS VISIT THE SCENES OF CHILDHOOD DAYS

m Creek Presbyterian Church Celebrated Its Centenary.

PIONEER IN GOOD WORKS

dge S. A. McClurg and Other Noted Pittsburghers Found Inspiration in Native Hills and in the Old Church. Incidents of the Day.

Nearly 2,000 people gathered yesterday in New Texas to celebrate the centennial of the Plum Creek Presbyterian church, of which the Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett is the present pastor. It was a day rich with reminiscence and the folklore of other days, in which such men as Judge S. A. McClung, Prof. Samuel Hamilton, Maj. J. K. Patterson and others took part. The old sacred edifice was much too small to accommodate the crowds that came from all parts of Western Pennsylvania to rejoice and be glad with her.

During the services hundreds stood under the shade of the broad trees that have sheltered generations of Plum Tree families. The church lies in the heart of a rich farming district, several miles from Unity station on the Plum Creek division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Carriages of all kinds awaited the trains at Unity.

The centennial services proper opened at 10:30 o'clock with the singing of an anthem. This was followed by a Scriptural reading by the Rev. G. W. Montgomery and prayer was offered by the Rev. George Lee.

Tribute to the Volunteers.

After a hymn the pastor read the history of the Plum Creek church, which was listened to with close attention. Maj. Frank Patterson paid a beautiful tribute to the "Volunteers of Plum Creek," the men who left their plowshares and spades to fight for the Union.

At noon an appetising luncheon was served under the trees in the rear of the church. Here it was that men and women met who had not met in 30, 40 and in many cases 50 years, and generations of families held reunions.

In the afternoon Judge McClung was the principal speaker. His speech was short, but filled with memories of his old home and the church of which his father, the Rev. Samuel M. McClung, was once a pastor. Addresses were also made by the Rev. Dr. M. B. Riddle and several former pastors.

Hundreds lingered about the scenes of their early days until the moon rose above the tree tops. A special train left here last night at 11 o'clock, bringing the Pittsburgh delegation into the city.

"Ebenezer on the Pukety."

The original name of the Plum Creek congregation was "Ebenezer on the Pukety," now spelled Puckety. In 1794 application was made to the presbytery for a pulpit supply. This was granted and services were held in what was then a wilderness. The congregation, however, was not organized until 1800. The first pastor was the Rev. Dr. Francis Laird. The present pastor was called in 1893.

Among those from Pittsburgh and vicinity who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Alter, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McJunkin, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Armstrong, S. A. Armstrong and Samuel M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Patterson, Mrs. Rachel Armstrong, Judge J. Shafer, Miss Lizzie Armstrong, Miss Mary Alter, Mr. and Mrs. George King and family, G. C. Patterson, Miss Anna Patterson, Miss Lizzie Gettys, Mrs. Mary Baxter, S. Lincoln McEwen, T. M. McEwen, Miss Mary McEwen, Miss Hessie McEwen, Miss Anna Kuhn, Frank Bruner, J. A. Miskimins and Miss Mary Miskimins, T. N. King, Miss Lydia King, E. C. Hazlett, Samuel Alter, Mr. and Mrs. G. McJunkin, Mrs. J. M. Kuhn, Misses Nellie and Maggie Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Johnson, Frank G. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. S. Glunt, Misses Nellie, Lou and Mag. Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings, Mrs. Mayme Glass, Mrs. George Stoup, D. Carothers and Henry M. Johnson, Dunkinsburg and William McClung.

A DAY AT THE HEINZ PLANT.

Mr. Heinz Welcomed Home.

H. J. Heinz and his son, Howard G., who have been traveling in China, Japan and Hawaiian Islands during the four months, have returned home. Mr. Heinz paid his first visit to the plant of the 57 varieties on North Side, Thursday at noon and agreeably surprised by a reception which employes had arranged in honor of the home coming of their chief. One of the young ladies, in a short address, welcomed him on behalf of the many female employes, and another young lady presented him with a large basket of roses, given as an evidence of the love that they hold for him for what he has done so much to better them in every manner possible.

Mr. Heinz responded by giving one of his entertaining talks, dwelling briefly on his travels, the incidents such as he before him while away.

H. C. Heinz was called on and made a brief talk concerning his travels and was much surprised he was by the many countries visited.

At the conclusion of the reception Mr. Heinz was presented with a handsome display of artificial Japanese cherry blossoms and each of the men with a souvenir, pair of Chinese chopsticks. The orchestra furnished music for the occasion and much pleasure was had by all.

STEEL COMBINE PROSPERITY IS VERY DAZZLING

Net Earnings for Quarter $22,000,000 More Than Year's Fixed Charges.

PAST RECORDS ECLIPSED

Also Exceed Preferred Dividend Requirements for Full 12 Months. Amazing Steel Rail Business Booked for 1903.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 19.—The first quarter of the United States Steel Corporation's second fiscal year, namely, the quarter ending June 30, will be seen to be quite the most prosperous in the history of the combine. It is estimated by an inside interest who keeps himself in close touch with these matters and who previously has made accurate forecasts of the combine's earnings, that the net for this quarter will aggregate more than $38,000,000. In the corresponding quarter of last year the earnings were $26,382,840. It is seen, therefore, that the estimated earnings for the first quarter of the combine's second fiscal year are $11,736,160 in excess of the net earnings for the first quarter of its first year.

Some interesting comparisons may be made on the estimated figures for the first quarter of this year. Assuming that the net earnings will amount to $38,100,000 they are $2,417,168 in excess of preferred stock dividend requirements for the entire year, since 7 per cent on the outstanding preferred stock calls for $35,682,837. Compared again, the net earnings for this quarter are $22,000,000 in excess of the combine's fixed charges or of the payments, for the entire year. These fixed charges amount to $15,290,600. In other words, the combine's fixed charges for the fiscal year might be paid out of net earnings for the first quarter thereof, with $22,900,000 left over, and this $22,900,000 would be equal to about 4 per cent on the preferred stock.

If earnings were to continue throughout the second fiscal year at the rate established in this quarter, the total would be $152,400,000 for the year, as compared with $111,000,000 for the preceding fiscal year, an increase of $41,333,000. This increase alone would be within $10,000,000 of the year's requirements for fixed charges and preferred dividends.

Steel Rail Business for 1903.

The steel rail business that has been placed for 1903 delivery since the association opened its books for such tonnage transcends all previous records. Since announcing its price policy for rails for 1902, the United States Steel Corporation alone has booked orders for between 500,000 and 600,000 tons for next year's delivery. It is estimated that the business similarly booked by other association manufacturers brings the total amount of steel rails already booked for 1903, up to about 850,000 tons, which amount is only a little less than one-third of next year's possible production. The Illinois Steel Company, a constituent of the United States Steel Corporation, is practically sold out for 1903.

This is an extraordinary condition of things. At a corresponding period of previous years the amount of steel rail tonnage booked for delivery in the following years was insignificant, and frequently it has been the case that no tonnage at all was engaged so early in the old year for delivery in the next. The significance of these figures is two-fold: They mean not only that at least one branch of the steel industry is to be more prosperous next year than it has ever been; but also that the big railroad companies are sanguine almost to the point of certainty as to the outcome of this season in the crops. The demand for railroad equipment was never before so heavy as it is today.

The United States Steel Corporation has insistently refused to advance prices for 1903, either for rails or for any other of its products, in spite of all the pressure that independent manufacturers have brought to bear, and this pressure has been very considerable. The policy of the United States Steel Corporation, as already laid down, in respect to rails, will prevail for its other products, and it also will exercise as much influence as it can to persuade independent manufacturers to pursue a similar policy.

No Quorum at Bethlehem Meeting.

Advices from Philadelphia are that a majority of the stock of the Bethlehem Steel Company was not represented at the annual meeting and that the meeting was adjourned without date. It is understood that it was decided to allow the meeting to go over until a later date because of the recent transfer of a majority interest in the company to the United States Ship Building Company, and that the election will be held in abeyance until the new owners are ready to put in their board.

Will Develop Peruvian Mines.

A syndicate, composed of wealthy men, has been formed to conduct mining operations in South America on an extensive scale. With this object in view three companies have been recently organized with a combined capitalization of $30,000,000. The companies are the Cerro de Pasco Mining Company, with a capital of $10,000,000; Cerro de Pasco Railway Company, capital $10,000,000, and the Cerro de Pasco Investment Company, capital $10,000,000. The last named company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey yesterday. The railway company and mining company filed papers of incorporation a few weeks ago. The incorporators are Horace S. Gould, Francis S. Hutchins and K. K. McLaren, all associated with the Corporation Trust Company of New Jersey. It is understood that the syndicate will operate principally in Peru.

Powderly an Anthracite Operator.

T. V. Powderly, formerly president of the Knights of Labor, is at the head of a new anthracite coal company which was incorporated in New Jersey today with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The incorporators are Edward P. Cone, John W. Peale and Mr. Powderly.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 19.—A late arrival at Thunder mountain, Idaho, writes that there is undoubtedly great mineral wealth in the new district, but it is not a poor man's camp by any means. Prices of provisions and supplies range high, and should 3,000 people go in, as the boomers predict, he says there will be great suffering and distress before fall. Prospectors agree that in Central Idaho there are vast deposits of low-grade mineral, with occasional rich pockets; but investors should not be misled by booming advertisements. A great deal of capital will be needed for mills to treat the ore, and claims are already commanding extravagant prices.

On the east side of House mountain, in the La Sals country, Utah, a dyke vein 50 feet wide carrying rich gold and silver values has been opened. Experts have pronounced the molybdenite ore found in the district genuine, but its percentage is not high enough to make the product valuable.

The Fairview 10-stamp mill is being used to treat ore of the Cuttysark near Rochford, S. D. The ore runs over $10 to the ton and the mine is said to be making good profits.

The Musselshell mill in Myatte, S. D., has resumed operations. The process used is new to the Black Hills. Ore from all parts of the country has been tested at the plant, which, it is claimed, extracts 85 per cent of the values, even from the sulphide ores of the Bald mountain district.

Times are reported prosperous at Garnett, Mont. The Mussinghoff mill is running steadily and its mining, which are under continual development, continue to yield well. A great deal of work is being done on the Sierra and Grant and Hartley claims.

The Metal Market.

Prices for tin at New York were ⅛c lower, closing with spot at $28 22½@28 37½. This decline was largely due to a decline of 10s at London, that market being influenced by liberal offerings from far eastern markets. London closed with spot at £126 and futures at £121. Copper was dull and easy here, while London was 15s higher, closing with spot at £53 10s, and futures at £53 15s. New York closed with standard spot to August at $11 @ @11 50; Lake Superior at $12 00@12 45; electrolytic and casting at $11 75@12 12½. Lead showed no change from previous quotations of 4¼c. London also remained at former quotation of £11 5s. Spelter was unchanged all around, with London at £18 15s and New York at 4¾c, the latter price being more or less nominal. Local iron prices were unchanged, with the general tone of the market steady. Warrants nominal; No. 1 foundry northern, $22 00@22 50; No. 2 foundry northern $20 50@21 50; No. 1 foundry southern, $20 50@21 50; No. 1 foundry southern, soft, $20 50@21 50. Glasgow was a shade higher at 54s 8d and Middlesboro unchanged at 49s 9d.

Shaking out of speculative accounts in efforts to take profits causes a slump all around.

A rumor was started that J. P. Morgan was ill, and this, with a rumor of an adverse judicial decision, caused selling of United States Steel, forcing a drop.

The bears began selling on the realization drop, and were so precipitate as to cause a rise when ready to take their profits.

The national convention of mine workers called by President Mitchell causes financiers to look for mine settlement.

Big Slump Comes in Wall Street

SPECULATORS START A DROP ON REALIZING

Bears Come in and Sell Heavily, Finally Forcing Rise by Profit Taking.

CLOSE WAS IRREGULAR

Rumor of a Fresh Judicial Decision Against the United States Steel Corporation Causes Heavy Selling, Carrying That Stock Down.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 19.—There was quite an animated shaking out of speculative accounts in today's stock market and a sharp reaction from the recent prolonged advance. It became evident soon after the opening this morning that the real culmination of the rise had occurred yesterday. The leading speculative interests in the market apparently took advantage of the stimulating influence of yesterday's excited rise in Illinois Central to take their profits. This morning there were some operations that seemed to represent continued efforts to advance the market by one or two of the important speculative parties whose joint efforts have induced the late rise. But the effective support of the principal speculative interest was lacking and the professional traders were able to detect sales to take profits for that account. They needed no other invitation to turn aggressively to the bear side and they sold the list throughout with great freedom. Prices gave way readily and fell on an average from one to two points below last night's level. The bears were so precipitated in their selling that they were obliged to bid quite urgently for stocks when they came to take profits, causing some substantial rallies.

Close Dull and Irregular.

With the demand from the shorts satisfied the market yielded again and closed dull and irregular. The whole movement was technical and was as little affected by news of the day as the previous advance had been. The activity of the bears was evident in the circulation of alarmist rumors afterwards denied. One of these was that J. P. Morgan was seriously ill. Another was that a fresh judicial decision had been rendered against the United States Steel bond issue. The earlier weakness was confined to the stocks which have been the favorites during the bull campaign, but active selling of United States Steel developed under the influence of these rumors and carried that stock down 1⅝ below last night. The long continued rise in stocks has made the professionals alert for signs of reaction, which was considered overdue. The short selling from time to time has encouraged the bulls to extend the advance and force covering. A large portion of this short account was forced out in yesterday's jump in prices, adding to the technical weakness of the market today.

Help for Profit Takers.

The stirring of interest by outsiders, which was first manifest yesterday, also facilitated the profit taking by the insiders in the bull campaign. There was no unfavorable news today which has not been under discussion for some time past. But in the changed sentiment of the speculation additional consideration is given by the national convention of coal miners and the effort to bring about a general strike. Sterling exchange was still firm here and declined at Paris, both movements tending to increase the pressure upon New York for gold. Various new bond issues which are being advertised indicate large requirements upon the supply of credits in addition to the demands for the coming semi-annual settlement. Individual causes aggravated the weakness of some special stocks. Doubts were expressed over the maintenance of the present dividend rate on Colorado Fuel. Minor incidents of the day were declines of 10 points in International Power, 4 in Rubber and 4½ each in ice preferred and Brooklyn Union Gas.

Bonds were weak in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $3,110,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Looks Like a New Cow Run Sand Pool

Ritchie county (W. Va.) operators think they have discovered a new pool of Cow Run sand oil, located at the headwaters of French creek, in Grant district, and are beginning to start considerable test work in that locality. The stimulus is two fairly good producers on the Severns farm and one on the Crofing farm, and several new rigs have been completed within the last week. One is located on the Nellie Cunningham farm. This is shallow sand territory and developments will be watched with some interest.

On the south fork of Hughes river, Murphy district, and west of Goff P. O., J. M. Guffey & Co. are starting a test on the S. H. Wilson farm. This is another important test that will bear watching. The territory in this locality has all been under lease for some time. Near Lawford, in the same county, the Carter Oil Company has drilled a test on the Alex Wright farm through the Berea grit and has a duster. The same company is fishing near the top of the Berea grit at its test on the Creed Collins tract, located half a mile north of Pennsboro, in the same county.

A company styled the Philadelphia Land Company has taken up a large block of leases in this section. It is composed of new talent and does not seem to have any regard for past failures in tested territory. In this instance it looks like a case of "acres" without any well defined consideration as to how much of it will produce oil.

In Defined Territory.

In the Pine Grove district, in Wetzel county, E. H. Jennings & Bros. have completed their No. 32 on the L. S. Hoyt tract and have a 75-barrel producer in the Gordon sand.

In the same district, the South Penn Oil Company has shot its No. 11 on the W. J. Criswell farm and increased its production from 10 to 50 barrels a day. No. 12 on the same farm has been completed and shot, and will not make better than a 5-barrel pumper.

In the Cross Roads district, Monongalia county, the same company has completed its No. 2 on the Dennis Tennant farm, a failure in the Gordon sand, and drilled to the fifth sand and has a 5-barrel pumper in the lower formation.

Near Folsom, Wetzel county, the South Penn has completed its No. 2 on the L. B. Ice farm and has a producer good for 25 barrels a day natural.

In the northern end and on the east side of the Fish creek district in Marshall county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the T. F. McIlvaine farm into the Gordon sand and the well produced 50 barrels the first 20 hours, and is still drilling. In this, the latest Pennsylvania district, a number of wells are nearing the Gordon sand.

In the lower end of the Stout district, in Doddridge county, the Carter Oil Company has completed and shot its test on the S. M. Gaston farm and has only a little show of oil. It will make a light producer, but had a close call for the duster list.

Northeast of the development on Indian Fork, Gilmer county, the South Penn Company has drilled its No. 2 on the H. H. Cole farm to the top of the fifth sand, and west of Salem, Harrison county, has completed and put its second test well on the C. A. Hurl farm to pumping and has a 30-barrel producer.

Scored a Duster in Tyler.

In the Centerville district, Tyler county, the Chester Oil Company has drilled its test on the E. G. Lawson farm through the Big Injun sand and has a duster.

In the Murphy district, Ritchie county, the Cairo Oil Company has drilled its No. 2 on the J. P. Overton farm, located on McFarland creek, through the soft sand and has a show for a small pumper.

In the new Keener sand pool in Monroe county, Ohio, the bottom seems to have dropped out of the Unity Oil Company's No. 2 on the Harper farm. The production for the 24 hours ending yesterday morning was but 225 barrels. This is quite a slump from last Monday, when it was credited with 700 barrels a day.

In other parts of the development on the Ohio side of the river the wells are comparatively small producers or dusters.

Near Scottown, Washington county, the Arthur Oil Company has completed its test on the Frank Payton farm and has a 10-barrel pumper in the Big Injun sand. In the same district the Carter Oil Company has drilled its No. 14 on the Catherine Smith farm through the Berea grit and has a duster.

In the Macksburg field Capt. Peter Grace has drilled his test on the Hannah Pierce farm through the 500-foot sand and has a duster.

In the same district, Waugh & Longfellow ran up against the same kind of a circumstance at their test on the John Dixon farm.

In the Cross Roads district, Perry county, Hatheway & Co. have drilled their test on the J. Wiltshire farm through the sand and have scored a duster.

In the Wolf creek, shallow sand territory, Morgan county, Miles & Jennings Bros. have completed their No. 2 on the Jennie Cook farm and drawn a blank. In the same district the Ceto Oil Company has completed its test on the Ralph Hass farm and has a show for a good well.

In the Joy district the A. R. Allen Company has completed No. 8 on the Isaac & J. Bail farm and have a duster.

In the same district the National Oil Company of New York has completed No. 8 on the Eva F. Balderson farm and have a duster.

Bishop Objects to Tobacco.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., June 19.—Bishop Nicholson of the Milwaukee Episcopal diocese, has created a mild sensation among the priests and laity of the diocese by issuing a sort of a pronunciamento against the use of tobacco. The bishop maintains that there is not one trace of spiritual help or physical gain from the use of tobacco, but untold evil have resulted from its use.

ere was a slight increase in ac- r on the Pittsburgh stock ex- ge yesterday, sales reaching near- ,000 shares. But the heavier ess done was not accompanied any improvement in prices. On contrary, the market was distinct- eavy most of the day and declines ging from ⅛ to over a point were rded in many of the active stocks. dow Glass and Brewing were less ve than usual of late, the chief est centering in United States Steel mon, which was sold freely all day touched the lowest point in over a . The decline, of course, was merely flection of what was going on in York. In Wall street the course of all week has been decidedly dis- inting, for while railroads have ed steel has steadily weakened and rday it went off even faster than e. Pittsburgh has been credited with a heavy seller of the stock in the and it is certain that the trades on ocal board are but a very insignifi- portion of the operations in the by local traders. The trouble seems that the stock wouldn't go up on manner or quantity of good news, o traders are waiting out its disgust. appears to be the real reason for the ness, rather than disappointment the decision of the Jersey court in ding the injunction. The preferred stock was comparatively steady, losing only a small fraction. Crucible Steel was soft, selling at 21⅜, the lowest mark for the present movement, but stopping a little before the close. The preferred sold unchanged at 85¾.

Brewing common was a feature, showing gratifying strength. Over 1,000 shares changed hands and only once did the price fall below 28, the closing price on Wednesday, and the loss was speedily recovered. The preferred rose to 46, the highest in months, and was in excellent demand at the advance.

Window Glass was very weak all day. The opening was lower at 61, and the price sagged off slowly, reaching 63½ about noon, and rallying only ½ before the close. Manipulation for the rise was absent, and profit-taking sales were in evidence. Pittsburgh Coal was also very soft. It dropped a point to 26 on the sale of 10 shares, but recovered half the loss later on a good-sized trade. The preferred lost ¼. River Coal common sold up ⅛.

The absorption of the Mechanics National bank by the First National bank is assured by the fact that over 6,700 shares have been deposited. No details as to when the transfer will be effected have been announced, but it will probably occur on June 30.

One share of Chemical National bank sold at auction this week at 4,325.

Production of copper in the United States in May was 25,762 tons, against 22,302 tons last year; for five months ending June 1, 1902, 113,708 tons, against 110,763 tons last year. Exports of copper in May amounted to 18,28 tons, against 10,062 tons in May last year.

Formal notice was given on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday that payments on subscriptions to the new stock of the Standard Underground Cable Company would be in two installments of 50 per cent each, due on or before July 15 and January 15. Quotations on the stocks will begin on Monday, 23rd inst.

According to Wall street advices the selling in United States Steel was quite general and there appears to have been a good deal of weak holdings in these securities. The talk was that the labor situation is unsettled and that a strike of the soft coal miners would be very detrimental to the steel industry. Moreover, it was announced that the Steel Corporation has just granted a 10 per cent increase to its workmen in Chicago, and it was feared that this example might cause a general advance in wages.

CARMEN AT DUQUESNE GARDEN.

Bizet's Favorite Composition to Be Given by Stock Opera Company.

A rare treat is in store for the music lovers of Pittsburgh and vicinity when the production of "Carmen" is made at Duquesne garden by the summer stock opera company all next week, commencing Monday night, with the usual Saturday matinee.

Miss Edith Mason, the prima donna of this season's company at the garden, will be heard in the trying role of Carmen, while Mr. Persse, the primo tenor, will enact Don Jose. These artists are among the very best in the extensive repertoires of these artists, and their impersonation will be given with all the life and sparkle to be expected of finished operatic artists. Other important roles will be played by R. S. Piggott as the torcador; Miss Mary Carrington as Michaela, Mr. John B. Morton as Doncairo, Mrs. Charles H. Drew, Miss Lelia Gardner, Miss Marie Stone, W. G. Shelley and Gus Nelz.

In the palm garden, after the regular operatic performance, Miss Elsie Evan, the Welsh nightingale, will be heard in a repertoire of classic and popular songs. Miss Evan is a protege of Mme. Adelina Patti and has had great success in the east. There will also be the usual orchestral concert, and selections by the mandolin club.

Monday night, June 23, will be known as American Mechanics' night, when it is expected that a large number of the members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, with their wives and sweethearts, will be in attendance at the garden.

The hero, in the eyes of childrendom, has for ages been "Jack, the Giant Killer." The booklet supplement of next Sunday's Gazette will tell all the daring deeds performed by him and his rewards for same. Your children will be interested.

Refined Sugar Declines Five Points

PITTSBURGH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS

Canned Tomatoes Advance. Fresh Tomatoes Lower. Raspberries Decline.

Hay, Grain and Feed.

Quotations all remained without change yesterday, and arrivals of stock were light.

Receipts baltlelined: Pennsylvania lines, 2 cars hay; Schultz, Bailey & Moore & Ohio railroad, 2 cars hay; Pittsburgh & Western railroad, 2 cars hay; total receipts, 16 cars.

Following are the official quotations for hay, milfeed, corn oats and straw, corrected by the superintendent of the Pittsburgh grain exchange:

Straw—Oat, $7 00@7 50; wheat, $7 00@7 50; rye, $8 00@8 25.

Hay—Choice timothy, $14 50@15 00; No. 1 do, $14 00@14 50; No. 2 do, $12 00@13 00; No. 1 mixed, $13 50@14 00; No. 2 mixed, $10 00@10 25; prairie, $10 50@11 00; packing, $8 00@10 00; loose from wagon, $1 00@17 00.

Rye—Milling price (delivered), No. 2 Michigan, 69@69c.

Wheat—No. 2 red, winter, 74@75c f. o. b. cars within radius of 50 miles of Pittsburgh.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, shelled, 69@70½c; high mixed, 68½@69½c; mixed, 67½@68½c; No. 2 yellow ear, 71½@72½c; high mixed, 69½@70½c; No. 2 mixed, 68¼@68½c.

Mill Feed—White middlings, per ton, No. 2, $21 50@22 00; brown, $19 50@20 00; bran, $19 50@20 00.

Groceries.

A surprise was sprung on the grocery trade yesterday by sugar refiners, a decline of 5 points on all refined sugars being quoted. Less than two weeks ago an advance of five points was made, and it was expected this would be followed by other advances, as, at this season of the year when August is the call for demand, the refiners continue prepared to rule in the winter time. The reduction of yesterday, however, sends figures back to where they were before the last advance. This action is regarded by jobbers as merely temporary, and probably the forerunner of changes in another direction. The opinion is expressed that the decline is for the purpose of hurrying up slow buyers, who have not commenced to purchase for the summer trade. The backward fruit season has made retail grocers dilatory in the matter of stocking up with sugar.

Flour—Jobbers' prices: Fancy spring patents, $4 10@4 15; fancy winter patents, $4 00@4 10; straight winter, $3 80@3 90; fancy spring, $3 00@3 60; rye, $3 45@3 60; graham, $4 00@4 30; cornmeal, 1bl, $3 50@3 60; 10-lb cotton bags, 19@20c.

Woman Who Assisted Biddles to Escape Relieved of Other Trials.

DOUGHTY FACES A JURY

Ex-Alderman, Who Shot a Woman, Pleads Self-Defense—His Story of the Trouble—Charles E. Schmunk Raises a Technicality.

The charges of felonious assault and battery against Katherine Soffel were nol-prossed yesterday in criminal court upon motion of District Attorney John C. Haymaker the costs having been placed upon the county.

The informations were made against her before Justice of the Peace Harry C. Robison on March 13, and charged her with felonious assault and battery upon the persons of James G. McCarey and Charles Reynolds in the county jail on January 30.

On March 10 Mrs. Soffel was sentenced to serve a term of two years in the Western penitentiary for aiding the Biddle brothers to escape from jail.

Ex-Alderman David Doughty was tried yesterday in the same court on a charge of felonious assault and battery for the shooting of Mrs. Michael Kroener at her home, No. 405 Taylor street, while shooting at her brother, John Snyder. The case went to the jury shortly before 4 o'clock and when court adjourned the jury was still out.

Doughty Pleaded Self-Defense.

According to the testimony Mrs. Kroener was standing in the doorway of her home with her husband when Doughty shot at Snyder, who was near by. The shot struck her in the left breast. The defense alleged that he fired at Snyder in self-defense, the latter having attacked him with a brick. Doughty said that trouble had been brewing between Snyder and himself for some time, over some goods that Snyder claimed Doughty held illegally. The defense produced witnesses to prove that Snyder had at various times threatened to do the defendant harm and that they at the defendant's request had accompanied him home, he fearing Snyder would attack him.

On the night of the shooting, Doughty claimed, Snyder followed him home and attacked him by throwing a brick at his head. After this had been done he said he drew his revolver and fired five shots at him.

When on the witness stand Snyder denied ever making any threats against Doughty, and claimed that the defendant upon seeing him drew a revolver and fired at him without provocation. A sealed verdict will be returned.

Raised Interesting Technicality.

Charles E. Schmunck was found guilty of a charge of false pretense preferred by the Western Electric Company of New York city. Schmunck was convicted of the same offense during the December term, 1901, of the criminal court, but was granted a new trial by Judge Marshall Brown on the ground that this court has no jurisdiction in the case.

Schmunk, it appears from the testimony, was a representative of the Miller Electrical Maintenance Company. It was claimed that he mailed to the prosecutors a false statement of the financial condition of the company he represented, and through this statement goods were forwarded by the prosecutors to Schmunk in Pittsburgh or his agents. Shortly after the goods were forwarded the Miller Electrical Maintenance Company went into bankruptcy.

The defendant argued that as the letter which contained the order for the goods was received in New York city the crime was committed there, and the defendant should be tried there. He also claimed the goods were shipped to his agents outside of Allegheny county, and that this court has no jurisdiction in the case.

The prosecution argued that the case should be tried in Pittsburgh, as Pittsburgh was the base of the defendant's operations.

MANY WILLS FILED.

William G. Foster Leaves a Large Estate to His Family—Mary A. Ross' Will.

The will of William G. Foster was filed. The value of the estate is not estimated. To the decedent's wife, Anna L. Foster, is bequeathed the family residence, household goods, horses, carriages, etc. The residue of the estate is left in trust. Out of the income of the estate the executor is to pay the following sums annually for a period of five years: Anna L. Foster, the widow, $3,000; Emma L. Foster, a daughter, $1,200; Charles F. Foster, a son, $600; Helen F. Harrison a niece, $600. At the expiration of five years the estate is to be divided into 10 parts. The widow gets four parts, the daughter three parts, Charles F. Foster, a son, one part; William G. Foster, a son, one part, and Helen F. Harrison, a niece, one part.

The will of Elizabeth Thursby Barnett of Pittsburgh was also filed. The personal estate is bequeathed to Alice J. Barnett, a daughter. The real estate is to be sold, and from the proceeds the daughter is to receive $2,500 and William J. Barnett, a son, $1,000. The residue of a $6,000 estate is left to David M. Barnett.

By the will of R. C. Totebusch of Allegheny an estate worth $1,000 is left to his wife. Peter Datt late of Glenosia, left an $8,000 estate to his wife and children. Mary A. Ross, late of Pittsburgh, bequeathed an estate valued at $9,650 to Irving D. Ross, James L. Ross, William K. Ross, Anna M. Black and one-fifth share to the support of Charles E. Ross, a son. The Fidelity Title & Trust Company is named as executor.

NO MONEY FOR FOURTH GIVEN YESTERDAY

Slump in Contributions That Is Not Understood—Railroads Perfecting Plans—Gov. Stone's Program.

The Finance sub-committee having in charge the Greater Pittsburgh Fourth of July celebration has a shortage of $6,000 staring it in the face. Yesterday not a dollar was contributed. It is estimated that $25,000 is necessary to carry out the plans that have been made. About $19,000 has so far been contributed.

The members of the committee are giving liberally of their money and all of the time necessary to make the coming celebration a great and magnificent success, but they are not supported in it.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has perfected arrangements for handling the crowds that will come over the road, and all of its tributaries, and for the one day there will be a special station on the road. This station will be Panther Hollow. A long platform is nearly completed in Panther Hollow, and all excursion trains over that road will be run direct to the Panther Hollow station.

Gov. Stone, accompanied by Adjt.-Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, their wives and other members of the governor's staff, will arrive in Pittsburgh on the evening of July 3.

Gov. Stone and party will arrive at the East Liberty station at 6:55 o'clock, and be driven to the Hotel Schenley, where the governor will make his headquarters during his stay here. A private car attached to a regular westbound train will be occupied by the party.

City Recorder Murphy yesterday received $403 additional contributions to the Allegheny Fourth of July fund. The contributions so far reported are as follows:

Would Gold Dollars Be Cheap at Seventy-Five Cents?

Here's something still better value. Black silk Eton jackets, with black or white silk vests, and with black or white taffeta silk lining; jackets that sold so readily at $8.50 we could not keep sizes in stock, but the manufacturer made us a large lot at little late, and we closed them all out, so we now offer them at $5." We have all sizes from 32 to 44. Here's another jacket bargain—Black peau de soie, allover corded, excellent quality silk lining either black or white, and with black or white vests, a handsome garment that sold at $10.00 in season, and were cheap at that; but the clearance sale price is $6.50.
